MR. EDEN ON BRITISH AIMS FOR POST-WAR RECONSTRUCTION: WILL NOT SHIRK OUR RESPONSIBILITY

Economic Reorganisation Of Europe Will Not Be Easy

"THE ECONOMIC REORGANISATION OF EUROPE WILL NOT BE EASY BUT WE WILL NOT SHIRK OUR OPPORTUNITY OR OUR RESPONSIBILITY," SAID MR. ANTHONY EDEN, SECRETARY OF STATE FOR FOREIGN AFFAIRS, IN A SPEECH AT THE MANSION HOUSE IN LONDON YESTERDAY IN WHICH HE OUTLINED BRITISH PLANS FOR POST-WAR RECONSTRUCTION.

"The British aim will be to free the post-war world from want. It will be our wish to work with others to prevent the starvation period which followed the last war and the fluctuation of foreign exchange and market prices.

"We shall seek to achieve this in ways which will interfere as little as possible with the proper liberty and economic system of each country. In a system of free economic co-operation Germany must play a part.

British Forces Pounding Ramadi Relentlessly

BRITISH FORCES IN IRAQ ARE RELENTLESSLY POUNDING RAMADI, 12 MILES NORTH-WEST OF HABBANIYAH.

Referring to the encouraging reports from Iraq, MR. EDEN, FOREIGN MINISTER, in the House of Commons yesterday, said that it was hoped that Iraq would soon be rid of Rashid Ali, after which the re-establishment of the country under the Regent, could be carried out.

"We have no designs of any kind against the independence of Iraq," said Mr. Eden, "and since his return to Iraq a few days ago the Regent has received innumerable messages of loyalty and support from all over the country. Many of Rashid Ali's followers are reported to have already fled."

Mr. Eden referred to the growing unity in the Arab world with whom Britain had long traditions of friendship. The Arabs had made great strides in progress in every direction and no appeal from them should go unanswered.

TIES STRENGTHENED
The Foreign Secretary concluded, "It seems to me both natural and right that the cultural and economic ties of the Arab countries—yes, and political ties—should be strengthened. The British Government will support any scheme that commands general approval."

It is reported that the Regent of Iraq has reached Fallujah and is forming a new Government in Iraq. He will proceed to Baghdad as soon as the British troops, who are advancing towards the town, have taken it, says Reuter.

ALIS' LUGGAGE
The arrival in Ankara of 20 large pieces of luggage belonging to the Iraqi rebel leader, Rashid Ali, has revived rumours that he is coming to Turkey.

WASHINGTON, May 29 (Reuter)—The House Appropriations Subcommittee approve President Roosevelt's request for $2,790,000, 000 for 13,000 planes for the Army.

Today's News Summary

SPEAKING AT THE Mansion House yesterday, the British Foreign Secretary described British aims in the post-war reconstruction. He said that economic reorganisation in Europe would not be easy but British would not shirk her opportunity or responsibility. Mr. Eden also welcomed President Roosevelt's speech.

LATEST REPORTS FROM IRAQ state that the British are relentlessly pounding Ramadi, north-west of Habbaniyah. In the House of Commons yesterday Mr. Eden made a statement on the encouraging reports from this theatre of war.

ADMINISTRATION CIRCLES in Washington believe that Japan's adherence to the Axis may be soon weakening. More comments acclaiming Mr. Roosevelt's speech are contained in the world Press and it is pointed out that extra editions were printed in Chungking—a rare occurrence.

AN ADMIRALTY COMMUNIQUE states that H.M.S. York, 8,000-ton cruiser, has to be abandoned as lost in Suda Bay, in Crete. Fierce fighting on the Island is continuing and more German airborne troops are being landed.

ENEMY AIR ACTIVITY over Britain on Wednesday night was on a heavier scale than on previous nights.

Daylight Sweep

LONDON, May 29 (Reuter)—British fighters yesterday evening carried out a daylight sweep on the French coast and the Straits. They encountered enemy fighters and destroyed one without a British loss.

Enemy air activity over Britain last night was on a heavier scale than on previous nights, says the Air Ministry communique.

Bombs were dropped at a number of widespread places, mostly round the coast, in the North-West and South-East. Some damage was done and there were some casualties.

At one place in the South-East a number of persons were rendered homeless. At least one enemy aircraft is known to have been destroyed.

BY-ELECTION AT HORNSEY

LONDON, May 29 (Reuter)—Conservatives retained the seat at Hornsey as a result of a by-election announced this morning as follows: Captain Gammans (Conservative), 11,077; Noel Pemberton Billing (Independent), 4,148.

"BUT HERE I DRAW A FIRM DISTINCTION. WE MUST NEVER FORGET THAT GERMANY HAS BEEN THE WORST MASTER EUROPE HAS EVER KNOWN. FIVE TIMES SHE HAS VIOLATED PEACE AND SHE MUST NEVER BE IN A POSITION TO PLAY THAT ROLE AGAIN."

Mr. Eden added that the British terms would be designed to prevent a repetition of these German misdeeds.

The Foreign Secretary began by welcoming President Roosevelt's broadcast which he described as momentous. He said that the President had pointed the way to secure the foundations of the world and had accomplished a great act of faith.

BRUTALLY THOROUGH
Returning to Britain's post-war reconstruction plans, Mr. Eden said:

"There has never been anything so brutally thorough as Hitlerism. No country will be safe until this system is smashed. The Nazi is building up against himself a flood of hate unparalleled in force and volume and when the dam bursts it will sweep Hitler and his gang away, Gestapo Quislings and satellites and much else besides."

"Every German in his heart must know and fear this. We cannot now foresee when this will come but this German machine may break suddenly and without warning."

"Only the countries of the British Empire and her allies, with the United States and South America, are in a position to carry out a policy of reconstruction. When this comes we will have to make financial adjustments on the widest possible basis and we shall also develop international exchange and trade."

"The liberated countries and others will require an initial pooling of resources to carry them through this transitional period. Developments elsewhere and in the Far East, for example, will be affected by the plan for the reconstruction of Europe."

"We have learned our lesson of the interval between the two wars and we know that there is no escape from the curse which has fallen on the world except by the creation and preservation of the economic wealth of every country and that security which alone can make for the betterment of man's lot upon the earth."

NEW YORK, May 29 (Reuter)—The Federation of Labour, has directed all affiliates to refrain from striking in defence industries until all possibilities of mediation are exhausted.

JAPANESE ADHERENCE TO AXIS BELIEVED SHORTLY WEAKENING: BUSINESS INTERESTS REPORTED GAINING INFLUENCE IN TOKYO

WASHINGTON, May 29 (Reuter)—Responsible legislators, who talked with President Roosevelt a few hours previous to his radio speech, revealed that there is growing belief in Administration circles that JAPANESE ADHERENCE TO THE AXIS MAY SOON WEAKEN.

They cited as evidence the President's omission of Pacific problems in his radio talk.

The belief was said to be based on information that business interests were gaining influence in Tokyo and might eventually prevail over the military.

Masterly Restatement Of Democratic Case

"THE SPEECH WAS A MASTERLY RESTATEMENT OF THE CASE FOR DEMOCRACY AND INCLUDED THE PLAINEST SPEAKING WHICH THE NAZIS HAVE EVER HEARD. We can all rightly feel very grateful to President Roosevelt for his speech which has uplifted us and frightened the very life out of the enemy," said MAJOR ALLEN MURRAY in a news commentary broadcast from London last night.

Maj. Murray said that Mr. Roosevelt's apt mention of China would not be lost to the ears of the reluctant partner of the Axis Pact—Japan.

Major Murray said that he had been studying the verbatim report of the speech in the Press. Its forcefulness grew in strength when one realised that it followed the statement by Admiral Raeder on convoys and M. Javal's warning to the United States.

NOT FRIGHTENED
It was easy to see that the people of America were not intimidated or frightened by what had gone before.

Mr. Roosevelt had said that aid to Britain must be carried out but the exact form of United States action must at this stage remain a secret.

"We have in the past," said Maj. Murray, "been inclined to say too much about what we are going to do instead of keeping the enemy guessing. Mr. Roosevelt and his naval and military technicians will work out the necessary measures and put them into effect. That is good enough for us."

SENATOR GEORGE, Chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said that he considered it significant that Mr. Roosevelt DID NOT DISCUSS THE PACIFIC and intimated that he thought SOME CHANGE IN THE FAR EASTERN SITUATION MIGHT BE IN THE OFFING.

MR. HENRY WALLACE, Vice-President, is reported to be disappointed that Mr. Roosevelt was not more specific as to how the deliveries and supplies to England could be assured.

ENMITY REVEALED

TOKYO, May 29 (Reuter)—The HOCHI SHIMBUN, reputedly an Axis organ, said: "Now the United States has dared to reveal clearly her enmity against Japan and the United States must record the fact that Japan now finds herself in a position in which she is compelled to take effective measures to cope the hostile threats."

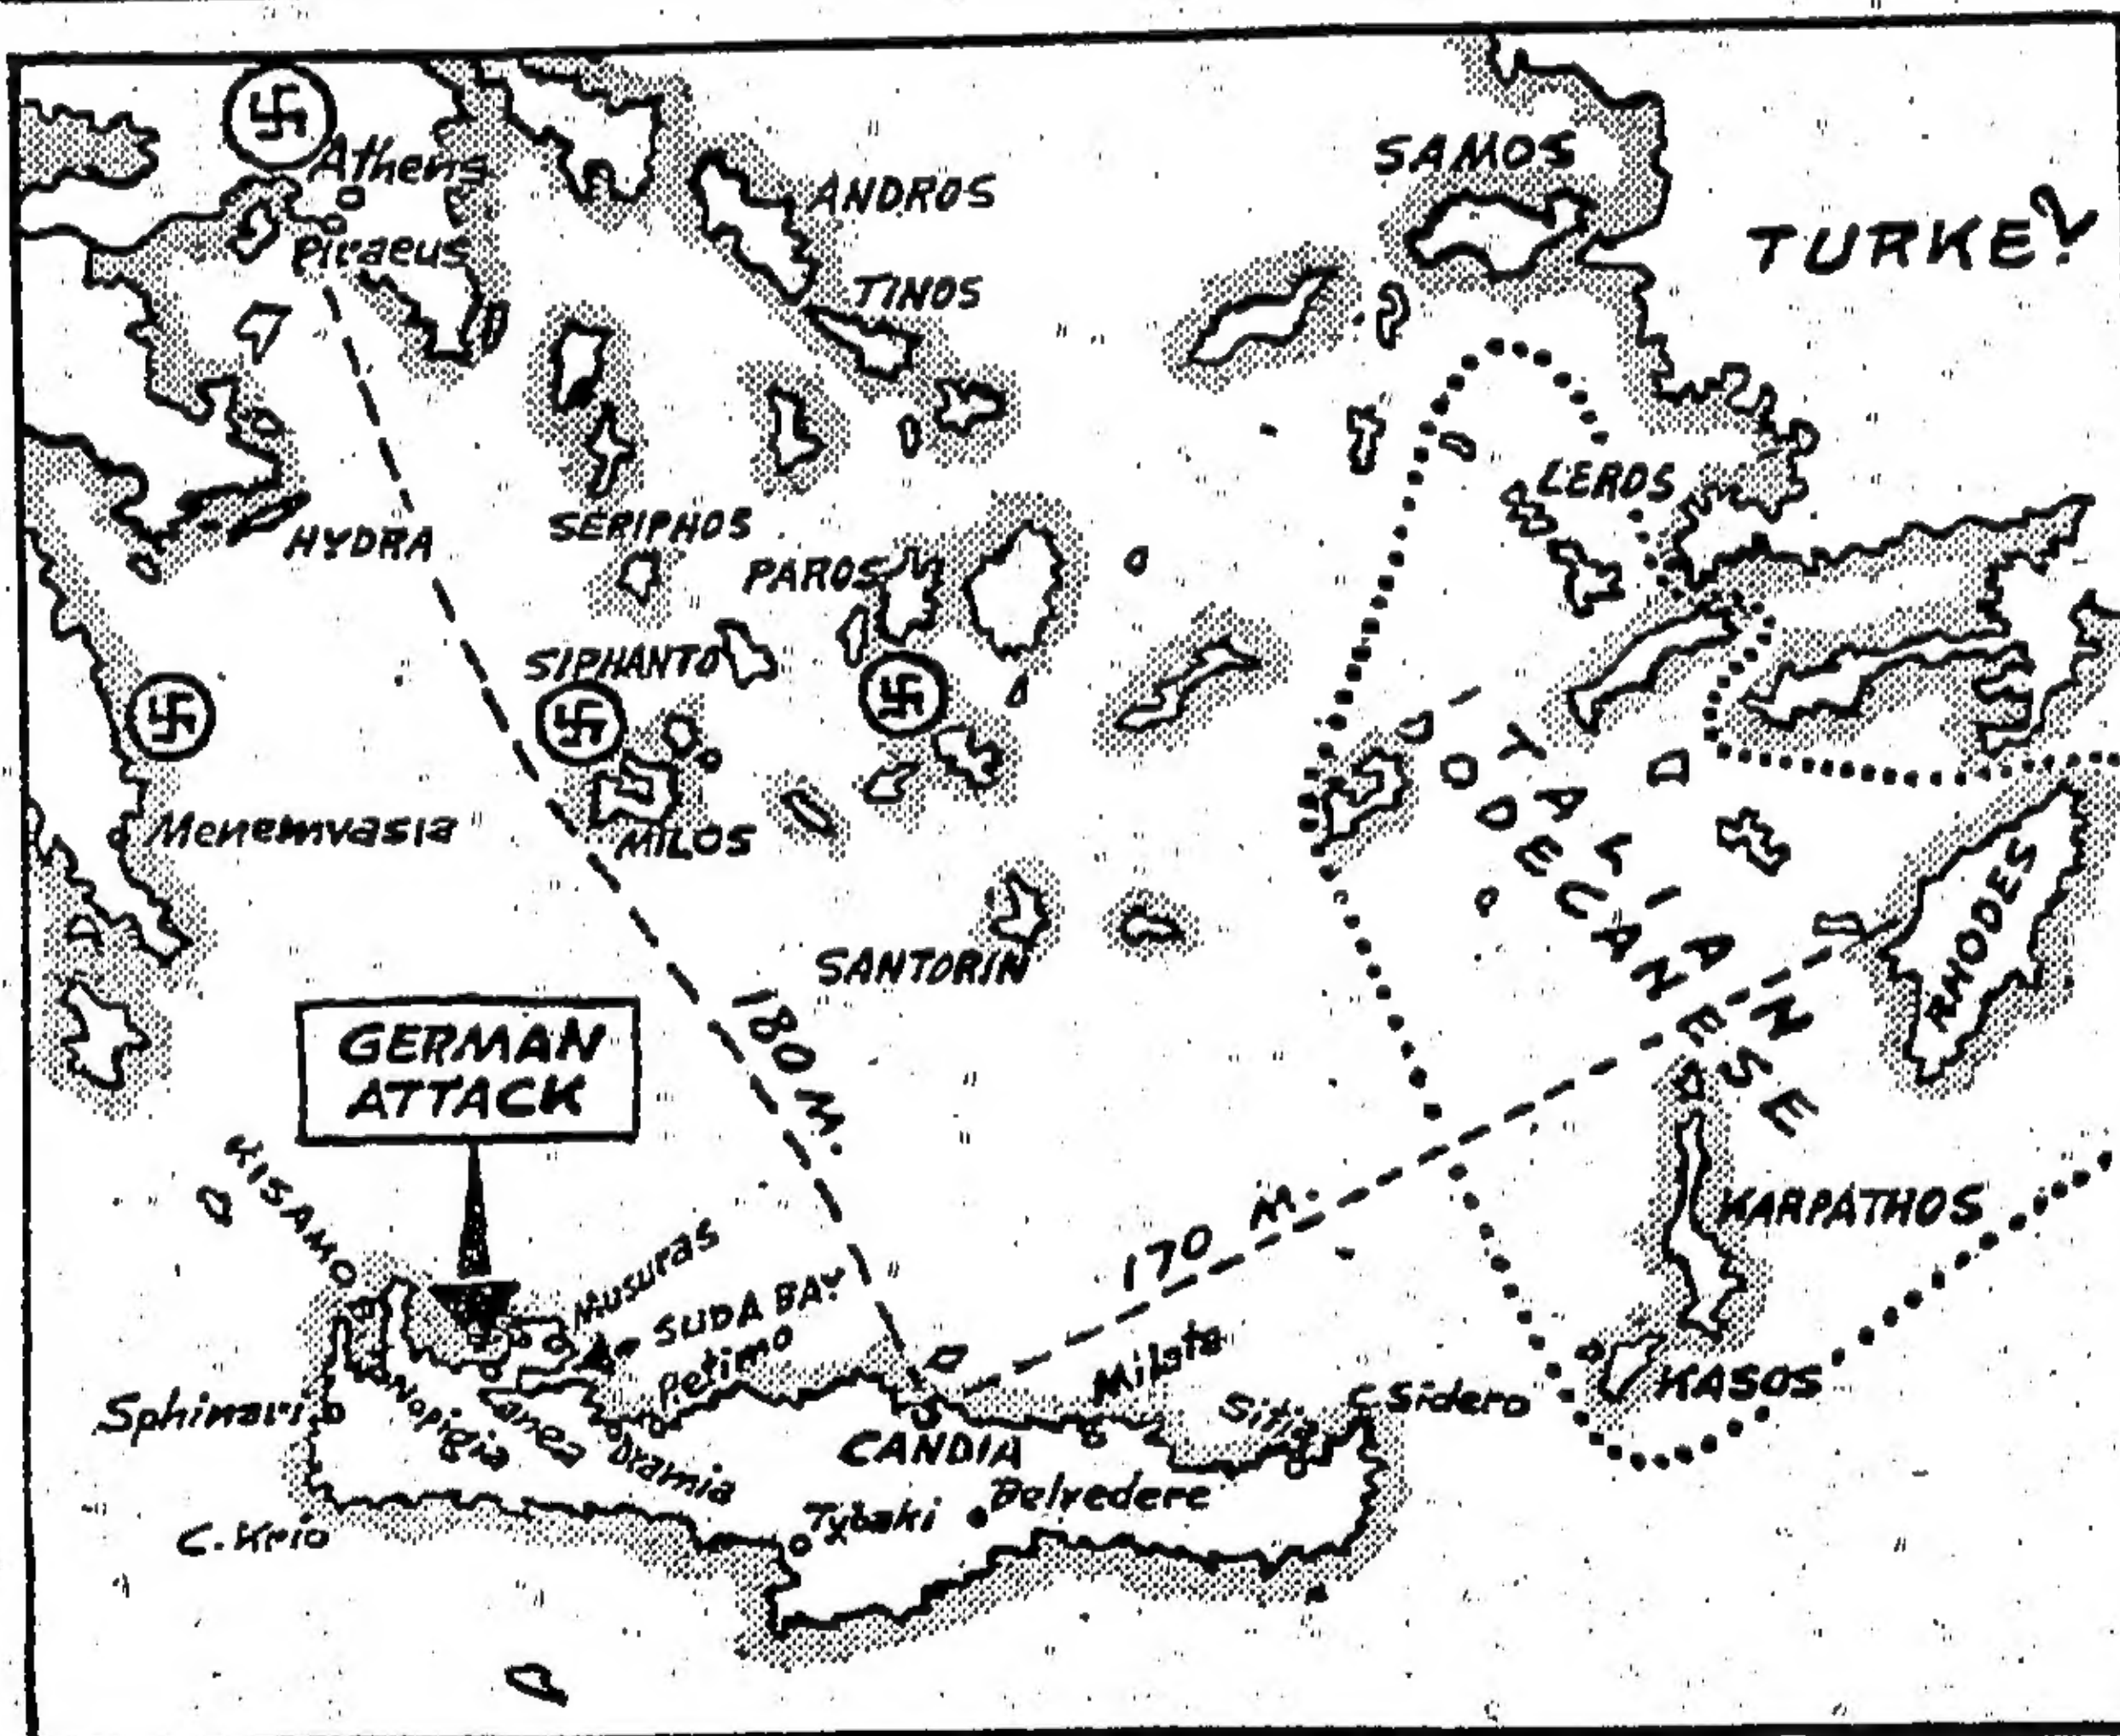

The Army organ, KOKUMIN SHIMBUN, asserted that Japan cannot look on with folded arms when the United States revealed her identity as an enemy of the projected prosperity in the sphere of the Far East.

SUPPLIES IMPERATIVE
LONDON, May 29 (Reuter)—The high point of President Roosevelt's broadcast was the unequivocal declaration that the delivery of needed supplies to Britain is imperative, this can, must and will be done, says THE TIMES.

Thus the President commits himself and the country to the responsibility of protecting supplies furnished by the United States to those using them in the front of battle for human freedom. The DAILY TELEGRAPH says that short of any actual declaration of war against the Axis, President Roosevelt went to the farthest limit of pledging increasing and utmost assistance to Britain. The fact that he specifically mentioned China may well lead Japan to further symptoms of caution.

CAIRO, May 30 (Reuter)—President Roosevelt's forthright speech is heartily welcomed by New Zealanders, Mr. Peter Fraser, Prime.

GERMAN PARACHUTISTS IN MALEMI AREA HAD FACES PAINTED GREEN

LONDON, MAY 29 (REUTER)—NO OFFICIAL NEWS TODAY HAS BEEN RECEIVED FROM CRETE, BUT FIERCE FIGHTING IS CONTINUING.

A dramatic story has been told by a British officer who was in Crete when the battle began. He stated that the German parachutists who landed in the MALEMI area were painted green, even their faces. They were mostly young men.

The attack on Crete has been carried out with unparalleled ferocity. The principal towns of Cania, Heraklion and Retimo were literally ploughed away by the bombing, which was carried out with mathematical precision.

Women and children were ruthlessly machine-gunned while hospitals were not excluded in the general catastrophe.

SEQUESTRATION OF NAZI FORTUNES

BASEL, May 29 (Reuter)—The Chief of the Civil Administration of Alsace states that French sequestration of German fortunes in Alsace has been annulled, according to a report received here.

Persons possessing and managing sequestered property are ordered to furnish particulars immediately.

Regulations governing the restoration of fortunes are to be issued.

of Maj. Allen Murray when he broadcast from London last night. One report, he said, had it that 1,200 Junkers were used to land troops on the Island. More reinforcements were needed for the British troops.

STILL CONTINUING
Dive-bombing and landing of air-borne troops was still continuing in Crete was the comment

With anticipation of further sales during the two days of racing, it should be sufficiently augmented to raise the value of the first prize to around $100,000.

JOCKEYS ABSENT

Mr. Victor Needa, has left for Shanghai on a combined business and pleasure trip, with the result that the well known "red and white stripes" will be worn by various other riders during the meeting. Unfortunately, Mr. Trevorton, is in hospital following his recent accident, and while everyone will be relieved to learn he is rapidly improving, it will be some weeks before this popular rider will be able to don silk again. RACING.—Hongkong Jockey Club's Sixth Extra Race Meeting, at Happy Valley, 2 p.m. (First day)

as she is in top condition right now, Mainsall and Manhattan are both worth considering as possibilities. The field will be an evenly balanced one as every starter will have something to their credit and may still improve on previous runs. In addition to those I have mentioned do not forget Jus Gentium. This pony was a disappointment the last time out, but did not have all the luck of the race. One must remember she was placed in exceptionally strong company at the Annual Meeting and in fairly fast time. Of the remainder, I like Happy Returns and Hole In One best.

SHATIN HANDICAP (FIRST SECTION)

Despite having to carry 154 lbs., top weight in the opening event, Eye of Hunting is capable of withstanding the challenge of the others and should score a win in this sprint from the 14 Mile Post. I have been told that Mr. H. C. Pih will be the jockey. The distance also suits Lovely Star and this bay will undoubtedly be the danger to the Eve representative. Mr. Donald Black will probably be riding Just In Time and the combination is good enough to place in this field.

For an "outsider, Oscar Zylch, is my choice, as this pony is in fairly good condition and should do better than when last raced. Mr. S. L. Yuen, part owner, will be in the saddle. The other entries are Bool at Bay, Celtic Star, Jane Doe and Rose Queen, all of which, in my opinion, are running out of their distance.

WARWICK FARM STAKES (First Section)

Though there are only ten ponies drawn for in this section, the race should be much more interesting than many would expect. At the last meeting, Twinkling Star (Craven) practically stopped, due to some reason or other, while going up the Roma and lost valuable lengths, but came on again strongly in the straight to finish a good second behind Bendigo. I think this chestnut will make amends tomorrow, but will not have everything her own way as The Koala Bear (Pih) impressed me a great deal on Wednesday morning and will be a source of worry to anything in the race.

Sydney Lady (Hearne) should also be prominent and at least secure a place. Daylight would find a sprint race more suitable than from the two mile post, but even then, this Eve candidate is not altogether out of the running. The most improved pony amongst the entrants is Red Rabbit and I may be spoiling someone's "hot" thing for the meeting, but in view of her present form, this mare is quite liable to cause an upset. It may turn out to be just a mere gamble, but a $5 investment each way should prove profitable, because should she only place, the dividend will more than offset the entire outlay, and there is still the possibility of a huge return in the event of a win.

BEAUFORT STAKES

In this six furlong race for non-winning China griffins, many will undoubtedly favour the chances of Lovelight. However, this bay did not appear to me to be in the form I would like to see her, and though she may have improved since then, I am not too sanguine about her chances and even think she may be a non-starter. I hope to be able to get a real line up on this bay on Friday morning before I make my final selections.

Lovely View and Night Express should fight out the issue here, though on Wednesday the former finished pulling up and as yet I have not been able to ascertain whether there was something wrong, or the pony just displaying a little temperament. Iron Beauty is fairly fast off the mark and should be watched, with Odessa as the next best, followed by Rosy Munt.

WHITSUN HANDICAP

Moonlight has been putting up some exceptionally fine gallops and though in at 156 lbs., should still be the public's choice, despite the race being over a mile. The opposition will come from A Surprising Time and it will not surprise me to see this mare even winning.

as she is in top condition right now, Mainsall and Manhattan are both worth considering as possibilities. The field will be an evenly balanced one as every starter will have something to their credit and may still improve on previous runs. In addition to those I have mentioned do not forget Jus Gentium. This pony was a disappointment the last time out, but did not have all the luck of the race. One must remember she was placed in exceptionally strong company at the Annual Meeting and in fairly fast time. Of the remainder, I like Happy Returns and Hole In One best.

SHARKS BAY HANDICAP

This mile race for "A" Class Australians is the first leg of the Daily Double. The distance is too short for Baffin Bay (Chao), who will have to be ridden hard to keep up with the field. I think, therefore, the finish will be fought out between Viceroy (Black), Distant View (Pih) and Endeavour (Well). The contestants would do well not to allow Australian Diamond (Chang) too much of a lead. The rider knows this chestnut well and the combination have been very successful of late. Many Thanks was galloping like a champion on Wednesday morning, but I think this bay is not quite up to the standard of the others.

LAMA HANDICAP (FIRST SECTION)

The "B" Class China ponies will be striving for honours in this mile race. I like the chances of Gay Star, with Avon and Johnner as the next two possibilities. Sam's Choice can also keep up with this class, but So Nice does not appear to be as fit when last successful. Wonderful Scheme goes well enough in training for the first three-quarters or thereabouts, but lacks that all important final dash.

HERVEY BAY HANDICAP

For the second leg of the Daily Double, my fancy is Man-O-War (Chao). This mare has been doing good track work of late and seems to be enjoying it, which is a very encouraging sign. First Love (S. C. Liang) should be close up at the finish. Gloaming and Marsh Warbler are two others that will need watching, while I am inclined to give The Nineteenth Hole another chance to prove that she can take in a little bit of distance. If you are on the look-out for some cash to tide you over the summer recess, I suggest a ticket on Vanguard. This pony has overcome her "greenness" to a large extent and is improving with each run.

SHATIN HANDICAP (SECOND SECTION)

There are several well known sprinters in this five furlong race but I feel Portrush should be able to hold them all off. Strathbrock and Sunlight View should fill the two minor positions. Forty Six is in fairly good form and may bring about an upset. If the going is on the heavy side, Valorous, that old and well tried favourite, must be conceded an even chance, especially so in view of the low weight, 135 lbs.

WARWICK FARM STAKES (SECOND SECTION)

Vitamin M appeared to be alright in her last training gallop but may still be a trifle on the heavy side. However, the tryout may open her out and if she is started tomorrow, I expect to see her first past the post. In the probable absence of this mare, I like Googly and Ragle, with my preference for the latter as the race is from the two mile post, once round and in. Seventy Six should be able to pick up the small end of the purse in this class, while Princess Adelaide should be the inevitable outsider.

LAMA HANDICAP (SECOND SECTION)

I am strong for Galaxy in this

Inter-Club Swimming Meet At "Y" Pool: V.R.C. Expected To Win Ladies' Open Relay

BY "JIN"

Owing to shortage of swimmers, many of their members having joined other clubs, the Chinese "Y" would not be able to participate in the proposed Triangular meet at the European Y.M.C.A. pool on Saturday, May 31. However, the aquatic gala will not be postponed for the Lai Tsun Swimming Union has sportingly agreed to meet the European "Y" instead. There will be two open invitation events, the women's 200-yards Relay and an Invitation water polo tournament match.

Should the V.R.C. enter a team in the women's relay, there will be no doubt of its winning, for the team comprises Misses Vivienne Churn, Jackie Anderson, Ding Lopes and Celeste Gutierrez. This quartet of mermaids will even give a men's team a race for their money and that is saying something.

Nevertheless, the Lai Tsun team is reputed to be in tip-top form and should be able to give the V.R.C. girls a good fight. South China A.A. and the C.B.C. are also entering teams for this event.

In the inter-club events, the European "Y" have chosen a very strong representative team and are confident of turning the tables on the strong Lai Tsun Union squad. Two champions will be seen in action, D. Hutchinson in the 100-yards free style, of which he is the holder, and Chan Chun-nam in the 220-yards free style. Both these stars should win their respective events.

ACE SPRINTER

In Tsang Chun-ming, Lai Tsun has an ace sprinter and he is favoured to win the 50-yards free style.

Although the Y.M.C.A. lost to Lai Tsun in the 200-yards relay in their last encounter, the former will be represented by an entirely new team and may upset the too confident Chinese four.

Swimming fans will be treated to some good races at this gala, which is scheduled to take place at 8.30 p.m. and with the proceeds going to such a good cause as the Bomber Fund, a capacity crowd is expected.

THE PROGRAMME

The following are the events and representatives for the gala: 50 yards free style—E. F. Paul and G. Arnold (European "Y"); Tsang Chun-ming and Kum Hop-ming (Lai Tsun).

220 yards free style—A. F. May and L. A. Benn (European "Y"); Chan Chun-nam and Lau Tai-ping (Lai Tsun).

100 yards back-stroke—Lau Yung-tung and Pun Wing-kai (Lai Tsun).

Men's 100 yards free style—D. Hutchinson and J. Davidson (European "Y"); Chan Chun-nam and Lau Tai-ping (Lai Tsun).

Men's 150 yards medley relay—Y.M.C.A.: E. A. Roberts (Back-stroke), W. S. Gegg (breast-stroke) and N. D. Booker (free style); Lai Tsun: Pun Wing-kai (back-stroke), Fong Chung-yu (breast-stroke) and Tsang Chun-ming (free style).

Men's 200 yards free style relay—E. F. Paul, R. Goldman, A. F. May and D. Hutchinson (European "Y"); Tsang Chun-ming, Lau Tai-ping, Chan Chun-nam and Kum Hop-ming (Lai Tsun).

The North Point Chinese clubs have already started their season and on Saturday, May 31, at 7 p.m., the Chinese Bathing Club is holding their first inter-members gala. South China A.A. is close on their rival's heels and will be having their first night fete on Friday, June 6.

Three Phases Of Relief Commission's Work

More than 100,000 people impoverished by war have been helped by the Credit Loan Service of the National Relief Commission while 10,000 stranded refugees have been put back on their feet by its work-relief programme, according to a report recently released by the commission.

The commission's Credit Loan Service was established in May 1939. Up to the end of 1940, 18 main bureaux with 17 agencies and 53 sub-agencies were set up in provincial, municipal and hsien (county) centres of 18 provinces in China. To date, $1,029,000 have been loaned out, and the number of people helped exceeds 100,000.

Most of the loan beneficiaries had been deprived by the war or Japanese bombings of their last belongings. On top there had been the flood disaster in North China, drought and other causes which have reduced many people to poverty. The loans they obtained from the agencies enabled them to start life anew. They became peddlers, food vendors, cigarette-sellers.

Anyone bereft of means of livelihood may apply for a loan. The amount ranges from $10 to $100. No interest is charged, and redemption is to be made in five to ten instalments.

Progress in the National Relief Commission's work-relief programme which was started in November, 1938 is marked by the establishment of 14 factories in Szechwan, Hunan, Yunnan, Sinkiang, Anhwei, Kiangsi and Fukien as well as Shanghai. In these factories more than 10,000 refugees who had lost their jobs and homes have found employment.

Rescued from a parasitic life in refugee camps, they have turned into producers. These factories are engaged in spinning and weaving of cotton and wool, leather-tanning, making earthenware and pottery. Preparations are afoot to establish six other factories in Hunan, Szechwan, Kwantung, Shensi and Shansi—(C.I.C.).

Factors that contribute towards the preservation of good eyesight are sufficient rest, proper posture, good lighting and adequate nutrition. Dr. Ching said. It is important that these factors be given the utmost attention if one seeks to obtain the maximum use of his eyes and preserve their beauty.

For the ordinary layman, it is not unimportant also to understand some of the more common eye diseases, the Doctor said, and one very sensible precaution for those who frequently visit tea-shops is to avoid wiping one's face with the moist towels handed around by the pretty waitresses!

VARIED WORLD REACTIONS TO ROOSEVELT SPEECH

Australia Regards As Significant Passage On "Freedom Of Seas"

ZURICH, May 29 (Reuter) — The first press comments show keen disappointment over President Roosevelt's speech which, according to the Basler Nachrichten, added nothing to what he had already said before. "If America has decided to enter the war, it is difficult to understand why she does not fulfil this decision in the hour of the greatest need of her Anglo-Saxon friend," says the paper.

The paper assumes that American public opinion is still unprepared. The article adds: "The declaration of a state of emergency in the United States means delay rather than hastening of the Americans' entry into the war because it shows that President Roosevelt expects a long transition period. Therefore, he obtained powers which, as C-in-C, he would automatically acquire if war were declared."

A message from Canberra states that President Roosevelt's insistence on the "freedom of the seas" in his momentous speech is regarded in authoritative Federal circles as having tremendous significance.

It is believed that this reference, coupled with the proclamation of a state of unlimited national emergency, will lead to abandonment of the previously proclaimed defence zones, to much wider use of American ships in the areas from which they hitherto have been debarked and to unhesitating use of force in resisting any attack on them.

SPECIAL CONFERENCE

WASHINGTON, May 29 (Reuter) — President Roosevelt is to hold a special press conference at which he is expected to clear up the question of convoys.

Mr. Stephen Early, the President's Secretary, announced this yesterday morning. When told by reporters that the President's speech had left some confusion as regards the convoy issue, he replied: "I think he will clear that up and I would rather that he did it."

Replying to a question whether President Roosevelt's plea to all citizens to put defence first meant that the time for debate was over, Mr. Early replied that certainly free speech would continue.

Remarking that while the speech represented "80 per cent. of the job," the President still had about 20 per cent. cleaning up to do.

RECORDS BROKEN

Mr. Stephen Early said that a survey made on behalf of the Columbia Broadcasting System showed that the reception of the President's address broke all previous records, it being calculated that 65,650,000 persons in the United States, plus 20,000,000 in Canada, South America and Britain, listened to the broadcast.

He said that telegrams and telephone calls pouring into the White House broke all records, it being impossible to tabulate them.

Mr. Cordell Hull, Secretary of State, said that as far as he was able to learn, the reaction generally had been excellent, this appearing to apply also to Latin American diplomats.

AUSTRALIAN INTEREST

SYDNEY, May 29 (Reuter) — So great was the interest in President Roosevelt's declaration that radio shops were packed with listeners who even blocked the sidewalks.

Cars equipped with radio sets were surrounded with people listening intently and listeners similarly thronged hotel lounges.

"DECKS CLEARED"

LONDON, May 29 (Reuter) — "President Roosevelt has cleared the decks for action," said a London spokesman.

The President's declaration of the freedom of the seas, is interpreted here as fresh evidence of the President's unusual political astuteness.

At the time of the controversy over material aid for Britain, President Roosevelt cut the Gordian knot by the simple solution of the Lease and Lend Bill. Yesterday, he has done a similar thing on the specific and possibly controversial matter of convoys—he has proclaimed the broad and fundamental policy of freedom of the seas and this embraces everything in this respect.

PRESS COMMENTS

WASHINGTON, May 29 (Reuter) — That the nation has been doubly stirred by President Roosevelt's speech is obvious from the favourable comment continuing to pour in from all over the country.

P.M. on its front page proclaims "our conclusion, We are in it."

The New York Post with huge black streamers, says: "The President has spoken our will to act without further notice to safeguard Dakar, the Azores and Cape Verde."

Governor Lehmann of New York said: "The speech will bring renewed faith and strength to those bravely fighting to preserve their own freedom and the liberties of those other countries who still remain free."

The New York Sun, with a streamer, says: "The United States, on emergency basis, is committed to stop the Axis."

Meanwhile newspapers throughout the country are generally favourable. The Philadelphia Public Ledger says: "The hour of decision has found American public opinion thoroughly prepared."

JAPANESE REACTION

TOKYO, May 29 (Reuter) — "On the verge of war" is the heading of a leading article in the Japan Times and Advertiser on President Roosevelt's speech.

It says that there is no shadow or sign of neutrality in the speech but rather a determined stand against Hitler even to a promise to challenge German rights in British waters.

"The last vestiges of neutrality have been stripped from the United States, not by any desire of the people as expressed in the Neutrality Act but by the acts and words of the President."

ANGLO-RUSSIAN RELATIONS

Commons Query Elicits Only A Formal Reply

LONDON, May 29 (Reuter) — Mr. Anthony Eden, Secretary for War, was only able to give a formal reply in the House of Commons yesterday to a question about the Anglo-Russian relations.

He was asked when Ambassador Cripps last had an interview with M. Stalin and whether any assurance was sought or given regarding the Soviet intentions in the Near East.

Mr. Eden said while Ambassador Cripps maintained a regular contact with the Soviet Government, he has not recently had an interview with M. Stalin.

"With regard to the second part of the question, I am not in the position to make any statement."

AERIAL OPERATIONS IN MIDDLE EAST

CAIRO, May 29 (Reuter) — The bombing of Aleppo aerodrome in Syria and a successful series of raids on the enemy-occupied aerodrome at Malemi in Crete are the highlights of an official Middle East air communiqué.

"Libya.—The harbour at Benghazi was attacked by bombers on the night of May 26-27. One building was demolished and a number of fires were started at the base of the Cathedral Mosque."

"Near Sidi Barrani, a Messerschmitt-109 was captured after a forced landing and over Tobruk a Junkers-52 (troop-carrier) was shot down by gunfire."

"A successful attack was made by our bombers yesterday on shipping off the African coast. Several direct hits were made on two merchant ships of between 8,000 and 10,000 tons each of which were seen emitting columns of smoke."

NO REVISION OF NEUTRALITY ACT

WASHINGTON, May 29 (Reuter) — President Roosevelt has no intention of asking for a repeal of the Neutrality Act and is not considering its revision.

"The President made this clear at a special press conference yesterday to clarify certain outstanding questions following his 'fireside chat'."

The President added that he was not at present considering any executive orders to implement his proclamation of a state of "unlimited national emergency."

EXECUTIVE LEADERS OF U.S. ARMY

One of the most remarkable features about the United States army has always been the simplified method of concentration of executive power.

The army is under the direct supervision of the war department. Secretary of War, Col. Henry L. Stimson, has been a soldier, lawyer, and statesman, and who is holding his third cabinet post. He was Secretary of War under President William Howard Taft, Secretary of State in Herbert Hoover's cabinet.

Col. Stimson was long an advocate of international peace, guaranteed, if necessary, by force. He became Secretary of State under Hoover just when international peace machinery had reached the high water mark, and during his four year term, he witnessed its collapse. He was generally believed that he would have used force to uphold the Briand-Kellogg treaty had that been possible.

Hoover, however, believed that international peace can be achieved only through international disarmament, and Col. Stimson's "big stick" waving frightened no one.

Col. Stimson was out of the public eye during almost the whole of President Roosevelt's first two terms. It was only at the end of the second term that he reappeared as Secretary of War, succeeding Mr. Harry Woodring.

Col. Stimson was a graduate of Yale University and the Harvard School of Law. He entered the Judge-Advocate's office as a major during the first world war, and served overseas in command of an artillery regiment.

Directly under Col. Stimson is Chief of Staff General George C. Marshall, known to his intimates as "George," and to his men as a soldier's soldier. Gen. Marshall is admirably suited to command the army at this time when speed, maneuverability and discipline play such an important role in the success or failure of campaigns. It was his spectacular movement of 600,000 Americans into the Meuse-Argonne operations in September, 1918, and the withdrawal of 200,000 French troops that enabled the Allies to win the greatest battle of the World War.

GENERAL MARSHALL

After the War, Gen. Marshall returned to the United States with General John J. Pershing, serving as his aide-de-camp for five years. He was "detached" to Tientsin, China, during the 1927-28 period of unrest, then became an instructor in the Army War college, did a five-year tour of duty at Fort Benning, Ga., and went to Washington in June, 1938, as assistant chief of the war plans division.

Gen. Marshall is soft spoken, but answers questions with machine-gun rapidity. He does not on speed and efficiency, and thrives on deep studies of tactics and strategy. An infantryman by training, he has carried on the policies initiated by his predecessor, Gen. Mallin Craig, including development of aviation and anti-aircraft defences.

As his deputy to carry out these functions, Gen. Marshall has selected Major-General Delos C. Emmons, whose title is Commander of the General Headquarters Air Force.

Gen. Emmons has spent 32 of his 52 years in the army. He began a career as an infantryman after his graduation from West Point in 1909. He served in the Mexican Border Patrol in 1916, and was assigned to the aviation signal corps in San Francisco and Washington during the World War. In 1934, he was graduated from the command and general staff school and was assigned as

MAGNIFICENT WORK OF EMPIRE TROOPS IN THE EAST AFRICAN CAMPAIGN LAUDED BY BIRDWOOD

LONDON, May 29 (Reuter) — General Sir Archibald Wavell's strategy in completing the conquest of the Italian East African empire when distractions were about further north was vindicated in the House of Lords yesterday by Field Marshal Lord Birdwood and the Under-Secretary for War, Lord Croft.

Lord Birdwood, who is often called the "Father of the Indian Army," said that he had an uncomfortable feeling that unwittingly, full justice had not been done to the magnificent work of the officers and men from India, Dominions and the colonies in the East African campaign.

Lord Birdwood said that the majority of troops were from South Africa and India and practically every African colony was represented.

It was certain that Hitler ordered his subordinate, the Duke of Aosta, to contain the British troops as long as possible in Abyssinia to use up their large supplies. A feature of the campaign, however, was the extreme rapidity with which the operations were carried through.

TROOPS PRAISED

Referring to the mines and demolitions left by the retreating Italians, Lord Birdwood said: "No troops could have done better than my Indian friends in circumventing these difficulties."

Lord Croft warmly concerned with Lord Birdwood's praise of the Empire troops, notably the Indians and South Africans, and said: "When we realise the colossal distance travelled in the great hunt for the Bismarck, it gives more idea of the distances covered up the East African sea-coast to Addis Ababa, for within a month every capital of the Italian East African Empire was occupied."

AXIS STRATEGY

Dealing with the importance of the East African operations, Lord Croft declared that the obvious strategy of the Axis is to pinch out Egypt and the Suez Canal, and endeavour to drive us from the Mediterranean.

Our first great essential, therefore, was to remove the great menace of the Duke of Aosta's Army of 250,000, being able to attack us through the Sudan and Suez.

The success of the operations may well have been a very decisive influence on the momentous days which face us in the Middle East.

MASS AIR RAID ON LANCHOW SUBURBS OF TOWN MACHINE-GUNNED

LANCHOW, May 29 (Central) — Thirty-nine Japanese planes in three groups raided Lanchow, capital of Kansu, on Tuesday morning.

The first group was composed of six planes. But one of them turned back midway. The remaining five circled over the city around 10.50 a.m.

The second group of 24 planes reaching over the city around 11 a.m. was heavily fired at by Chinese anti-aircraft guns. One of the machines was seen to have been hit and damaged in its tail. Bombs were dropped in the eastern outskirts.

Eight pursuits and a scouting plane forming the third group broke into the city limits at noon after machine-gunning the western suburbs.

Eight other enemy planes also attacked Senyang, in Shensi, on Tuesday morning.

commanding officer of the 18th composite wing in the Hawaiian islands. Two years later, he was given command of the first wing at March Field, Calif., and last year was appointed commanding general of the G.H.Q. air force at Langley Field, Va. Gen. Emmons was in command of the squadron of Flying Fortresses which visited South America in November, 1939.

The commanders of the four field armies are General Hugh Drum, stationed at Governors Island, New York; General Ben Lear, at Memphis; General Herbert Brees, at San Antonio, and General John L. Dewitt at San Francisco. Another General destined to be heard from in the future is General Adna Chaffey. He will be in command of the armoured division.

Hard Fighting In Crete

MAIN NAZI EFFORT CONCENTRATED AT MALEMI

CAIRO, May 29 (Reuter) — Authoritative military circles summed up the Crete battle last night as follows:

"It is continuing to develop as an intensive stand-up slogging match. The fighting is hard, particularly in the area between Canea and Malemi."

"The situation is somewhat obscure and it is difficult to get accurate reports. More Germans are arriving all the time and our troops, holding a line of more or less continuous positions, are being borne back by their attacks."

"There are a certain number of Germans at Retimo and Heraklion. The fighting at these two points is isolated and is of no importance compared with Malemi, where the main effort is concentrated."

"The troops concerned are mostly New Zealanders, Australians and some British."

AIR OPERATIONS

A Middle East air communiqué states that aircraft of the R.A.F. carried out a number of successful raids on Tuesday and during the preceding night on the enemy-occupied aerodrome at Malemi. During the day a heavy attack was made on a large number of enemy aircraft on the ground. Many of these were destroyed and several others were severely damaged.

Fighter aircraft also intercepted a formation of Junkers-88 bombers north of the island and shot down three of them.

"During the night attack, five enemy aircraft are believed to have been destroyed on the aerodrome at Malemi and several others set ablaze on the adjacent beaches, where also bombs and machine-guns."

TWO THOUSAND MEN GO DOWN WITH BISMARCK

ZURICH, May 29 (Reuter) — Nearly 2,000 men were lost in the sinking of the German battleship Bismarck, according to an estimate reported by the Berlin correspondent of the Basler Nachrichten, who observes that crews on German ships are bigger than on British.

"A GREAT HUNT"

LONDON, May 29 (Reuter) — "It was a great hunt and we are eager and ready for more," states a message to the Admiralty from the Commander-in-Chief, Coastal Command, replying to a signal from the Admiralty gratefully acknowledging the part played by the Coastal Command in reconnaissance for the Bismarck.

The signal from the Admiralty states that this reconnaissance "contributed in a large measure to the successful outcome of the recent operation."

SLIGHT ACTIVITY OVER BRITAIN

LONDON, May 29 (Reuter) — A few enemy aircraft flew inland and only for short distances from daybreak until yesterday afternoon, says an Air Ministry communiqué.

During the afternoon, an enemy bomber was shot down by British fighters over South-east Scotland.

S'HAH NEWSMAN ABDUCTED

INTENSIFICATION OF HONGKONG'S WAR EFFORT: APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEE ANNOUNCED BY THE GOVERNOR

General Increase Of Present Basic Rates Of Taxation

"I HAVE RECENTLY APPOINTED A COMMITTEE WITH WIDE TERMS OF REFERENCE TO STUDY THE WHOLE OF HONGKONG'S WAR EFFORT AND TO MAKE RECOMMENDATIONS FOR ITS INTENSIFICATION. One of their principal tasks will be to suggest what reductions can be made in imports and I trust that they will find it possible to make substantial proposals," declared HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR, SIR GEOFFREY NORTHCOTE, K.C.M.G., when addressing the Legislative Council meeting yesterday afternoon.

Referring to the Report of the Reconstituted War Revenue Committee, which was tabled at the meeting, His Excellency said that he had discussed the report with the Executive Council and had recommended to them, and had obtained their concurrence with, the general increase of the present basic rates to 7 per cent. and 14 per cent.

His Excellency said:—The laying of the report of the War Revenue Committee gives me an opportunity to address you briefly on a subject which, as correspondence in the local papers from time to time reveals, is on the minds of many others than myself. That subject is the adequacy or otherwise of Hongkong's war effort.

ECONOMIC SIDE

As you are well aware the economic side of the war is of paramount importance, and with that in view the people of the United Kingdom have accepted so heavy a weight of taxation and have so drastically restricted their consumption of all but the bare necessities of life that the standard of living there is now definitely lower than it was two years ago.

The purposes of these great sacrifices are to save shipping space, to save labour on non-essential goods and to save money. It will not be denied that, in so far as it lies in our power here, we should do likewise.

With this end in view I have recently appointed a committee with wide terms of reference to study the whole of Hongkong's war effort and to make recommendations for its intensification. One of their principal tasks will be to suggest what reductions can be made in imports and I trust that they will find it possible to make substantial proposals. The problem is one of peculiar difficulty in Hongkong, which exists mainly on its entrepot trade though its manufacturing side has largely increased during the last three years.

That most important issue will be carefully kept in mind by the committee and by the Government in making its decisions.

The other means whereby Hongkong can contribute more fully to the war effort is through taxation, and I come at this point to the report of the War Revenue Committee which was laid this afternoon. The committee quite rightly considered the problem before it in the same light as that in which the War Revenue Ordinance was devised, that is to say, the provision of sufficient revenue to cover our war expenditure, including certain gifts to His Majesty's Government.

MORE WATERTIGHT

To this end they have produced a series of very valuable recommendations which will strengthen and render more watertight the existing ordinance, and in order to meet the heavier war expenditure of the Colony they have recommended that the basic rates of the various forms of taxation should be raised from the present basic rates to 8 per cent. and 12 per cent. respectively. In order that this increase should not weigh too heavily on the least well-to-do of those liable to pay Salary Tax they have recommended reasonable increases in the allowances for wife and children.

I have, however, discussed the report with the Executive Council in the light of what I have said already about the general intensification of our war effort, and I have recommended to them, and have obtained their concurrence with, the general increase of the present basic rates to 7 per cent. and 14 per cent.

So far as the salary tax is concerned I am giving close personal attention to the question, whether this further increase will re-act harshly on lower-salaried residents who have to maintain a family elsewhere than in Hongkong, having regard to the very considerable increases that are being made in the allowances for wives and children. That must be avoided.

The Attorney General will in due course inform you in detail of these proposed amendments.

BOMBER FUND

Before leaving this subject I offer to the organisers of the South China Morning Post Bomber Fund my very hearty congratulations on having passed the two million dollar mark. I feel sure that the Council will fully join their congratulations to mine.

I trust that what I have said this afternoon about the Colony's war effort will not be taken as derogatory to their energetic patriotism or to the public spirited munificence of the many individuals and firms who have contributed to that fine total. My remarks have, of course, a very different bearing.

I confidently hope that what I have said regarding the closer approximation of Hongkong's war effort to that being made in the home country will have your full approval.

No Evidence As To The Definition Of Grade 1 Rice

Summoned for selling rice on three occasions at prices in excess of the rates fixed by Government, CHAN SAU-CHI, manager of the KIN TAI LOONG rice firm, No. 27, Bonham Strand West, was discharged by Mr. H. G. Sheldon, K.C., at the Central Magistracy yesterday, when the prosecution failed to produce evidence as to the definition of Grade 1 rice.

In discharging defendant, Mr. Sheldon said that defendant was summoned for selling Grade 1 rice at prices higher than the maximum rate ordered, which was fixed at $14.40 per picul, but he was satisfied that the rice referred to in this case was so-called "Green Goat Special" rice and "Siamese" rice.

Since he did not know what Grade 1 rice was, said the Magistrate, and prosecution had not offered evidence to define what Grade 1 rice was, the prosecution had failed in all the three summonses.

THE SUMMONSES

The summonses alleged that defendant sold 17,935.5 cattles of Grade 1 rice at $14.88 per picul to Chau Yuk-hang, of the Wah Cheong Rice Shop, No. 94, Connaught Road West, on Mar. 21; 33,352 cattles at $16.27 per picul to Chay Pik-sun, of the Shing Shun Rice Shop, No. 103, Connaught Rd.

West, on Apr. 14; and 35,948 cattles at $17.22 per picul to Fung Dock, of the Nam Fat Rice Shop, No. 110, Connaught Road West, on Apr. 20.

Insp. F. D. B. Tuckett prosecuted, while defendant was represented by Mr. Edgar Davidson, who pleaded not guilty.

The first two summonses were heard last Wednesday, when the first two complainants testified that the rice they bought from defendant was definitely superior to the Government classified Grade 1 rice.

RICE TO BE STOCKED

Giving evidence yesterday, Mr. F. C. Barry, Manager of the Government Rice Monopoly, said that on Feb. 22, defendant's firm was informed by letter that all their rice imported was to be stocked up in godowns and no sale to be made without his express permission. On Mar. 22, defendant's firm applied for the release of 30,000 bags. Cont'd. Page 11, Col. 2

IN DEFENCE OF FREEDOM

IT IS a common failing in human nature, when an atmosphere of great expectancy has been built round an approaching event, which, by reason of the circumstances in which it takes place, is regarded as being of considerable significance, to feel some measure of disappointment when the event falls even slightly short of results which the imaginative mind, unversed in the complexities and intricacies of the situation, feels sure should have materialised. This has been the reaction in some quarters, particularly in the United States itself, to the eagerly awaited speech made by President Roosevelt on Tuesday. In point of fact, however, a careful analysis of what the President said reveals implications that meet, in a thoroughly satisfactory manner, nearly every expectation of those who felt disappointed because the head of the United States failed to put their thoughts into so many words of a decisive character. Just because President Roosevelt did not say that he was going to ask the Congress to declare war on the Axis Powers, or because he made no forthright statement that the United States Navy would escort American merchant ships bearing supplies to Britain and her allies, or that he would repeal the Neutrality Act, it does not mean that any of these possibilities was absent from his words.

THE PRESIDENT'S whole speech was underlined with the word "Freedom." That was the keynote of every aspect of the present political situation on which he touched. To maintain that freedom, in the present circumstances of the world, when liberties and rights of individuals and nations are being constantly threatened and violated, it must be defended and the President showed unmistakably that he was determined to defend it, wherever it was menaced, when he proclaimed that a state of unlimited national emergency would immediately be created in the country. This is exactly how he met the anticipations of those who hoped to hear him make the more fateful pronouncement, for the proclamation of a state of unlimited national emergency means only one thing—and that is that the whole country has been placed on a war footing. Such a measure can have but one interpretation in the light of present developments throughout the world. As a final warning to the Axis Powers it simply takes on the form of a preliminary ultimatum to Germany and her "brood" of pirates, who have begun to prey on civilisation and its rights, that no quarter will be given unless they desist from extending their evil domination and that, at the same time, those who are opposing them in the struggle for freedom can, must and will, have every ounce of assistance that the United States is able to give them.

THE DEEPER significance

Dragon Boat
Festival
Today

Dragon Boat races will be held in various parts of the Colony today in celebration of one of the most interesting Chinese festivals. Specially constructed boats, each holding between 30 to 40 paddlers, complete with banners and drums, will compete for trophies this afternoon.

The Dragon Boat Festival is based on a political theme of actual occurrence.

According to Chinese history, King Wai of the Chou State had a very able minister, named Wut Yuen, who was so favoured by the King that he was promoted to high rank which caused much resentment among the other selfish and deceitful ministers.

SCHEMING OFFICIALS

Certain traitorous ministers of the Chou State conspired with certain ambitious and scheming officials of the Tsun State to conquer and absorb the Chou State.

Wut Yuen had thrice advised his king not to declare war on the Tsun State, and on the King refusing to take his advice Wut Yuen resigned his position and jumped into the Pok River, near Changshafu, on the 5th day of the 5th moon.

After the death of Wut Yuen, King Wai declared war on the Tsun State but was badly defeated.

When the war was over, and in memory of Minister Wut Yuen, the people of the Chou State assembled every year on the 5th day of the 5th moon at the Pok River and cast into the waters dumplings made of rice, etc., so as to feed the fishes and prevent them from eating the body of the faithful Wut Yuen.

HEALTH BULLETIN

The following is the Returns of notifiable diseases notified as having occurred in the Colony during the 24 hours ended at midnight on May 28:—Cholera, eight cases; Diphtheria, one case; Dysentery, nine cases; Enteric Fever, two cases; Measles, two cases; Tuberculosis, 42 cases.

MARINE COURT

Bail of $10 was estreated by Commander J. Jolly yesterday in the case of a coxswain of a motor launch who did not appear to answer a charge that he had not produced his motor-launch licence when requested to do so by a police officer.

A meeting of the Hongkong Baseball League will be held at the Texas Oil Company today at 5 p.m., and not 6 p.m. as previously notified.

of the newly-proclaimed state of unlimited national emergency makes it possible for the President to do this at once. It has widened his powers to the limit for all purposes connected with production and manufacture for the defence of freedom; it has given him authority to take the most sweeping measures to mobilise the man-power and industrial resources of the country; and it has given him the discretion to use the physical strength of the country to see that those who are battling against aggression are reinforced with everything they need. These reinforcements, he is determined, shall reach the opponents of the Axis Powers and when he astutely stated that U.S. naval patrols will be extended to help the carrying of supplies across the Atlantic to Britain and her allies, he only used a nicety to imply protection for these merchant ships, in whichever direction their mission of aiding freedom should take them. In all respects, therefore, the President's speech was up to expectations. The Axis Powers themselves recognise this, perhaps more clearly than any others, as every sentence was directed at them. In the words of a Japanese comment, the President has poised his country "on the brink of war."

Apathy In Germany: Effect
Of Events Of Past Few Days On The People

"WE OFTEN TALK OF NAZI GERMANY AS THOUGH IT IS SOMETHING NEW. IT IS NOT. It is fundamentally the same as it was in the last war. This war, is for the Germans only a continuation of the last war," said MR. F. A. VOIGHT, a well-known journalist who had lived in Germany for many years as a correspondent, when he broadcast from London yesterday on the effect in Germany of the past few days.

Mr. Voight said that when the last war was over, the British looked upon it as something that was finished and settled with once and for all. The German view was that that war was not over and that the account was by no means settled, and they made preparations for a renewal of the first world war.

PEACE PERIOD

"When we speak of the period of peace, we mean the period between the two world wars," continued Mr. Voight. "To the Germans, the period of peace is precisely that period before the first world war, I mention this, because it helps us to understand how the Germans are taking the events of the last few days—the sinking of the Bismarck and President Roosevelt's speech.

"We often speak of Nazi Germany as though it is something new. It is not. It is fundamentally the same as it was in the last war. This war is, for the Germans, only a continuation of the last war.

German newspaper comments on recent events have been exactly the same as they were in the last war. The turn of each phrase is the same. There seems to be nothing changed. It seems as though there had been no peace, no revolution, no unrest, no unemployment—absolutely nothing between the two world wars.

"Let us try to sense what is in the mind of the German listening and reading public at the moment. How has that public reacted to events of the last few days? It may be somewhat presumptuous to try and do this, but we may come to conclusions that may not be very far from the truth."

PRIDE IN FLEET
Mr. Voight said that in this war, as in the last, the Germans took a special pride in their fleet and in this war they had tried to throw down the gauntlet to their rivals, the British Fleet.

Their commentators naturally became most jubilant over the sinking of the Hood and some of them went on to explain that this showed that the British Navy was out of date and that the whole British political system was out of date. There was no depth of mind to which the German commentator would not run.

"And now how are these people affected by the sinking of the Bismarck and President Roosevelt's speech?" continued Mr. Voight. "The loss of the Bismarck was of special significance, so they say, and it was also a cause for pride. It shows, says these commentators, that the British Navy was not sure of itself. If it had been sure of itself, they continue, why was a superior force despatched to destroy one German battleship?"

Mr. Voight said that the Germans were at first silent about President Roosevelt's speech and referred to a statement which had been made by a prominent German in the last war when it was indicated that the United States might come into the war.

CROSSING THE ATLANTIC

That German had declared that "as the American cannot fly nor swim, American cannot cross the Atlantic." Mr. Voight said that although the American could not swim the Atlantic, they had certainly

LIFELINE STRETCHING ACROSS THE ATLANTIC WILL BE KEPT OPEN

"We know now that the lifeline stretching across the Atlantic will be kept open and in that thought lies comfort and strength," said MR. CYRIL LAKIN, Assistant Editor of the London Sunday Times, when he broadcast from Daventry on Wednesday deputising for Sir Frederick Whyte, the usual weekly commentator, in the series "London Newsletter."

Mr. Lakin, who is the well-known authority and commentator on international affairs, confined his comments to two topics—the dramatic naval battle of the Atlantic and President Roosevelt's broadcast.

"We have just listened to one of the most significant speeches of the war," said Mr. Lakin. "That may seem rather a rash generalisation, as it is a struggle in which crisis has followed upon crisis, but it would have been justified even if nothing as important had happened in the past seven days by President Roosevelt's proclamation last night of an unlimited national emergency."

Mr. Lakin said that it was now less than 24 hours since Mr. Roosevelt had spoken but that it would take many hours and days before the full implications of his speech were realised.

SEA POWER STRESSED

"If you have listened to his broadcast you will have been impressed by the way in which the President stressed the importance of sea power," said Mr. Lakin. "He said that the Axis Powers will never attain their dream of world domination unless they get control of the seas. All his words were tied up with the freedom of the seas. They underlined every word that President Roosevelt spoke. I should like, therefore, to draw your attention to one or two aspects of these sea operations."

Mr. Lakin then went on to describe the recent events in the Battle of the Atlantic. He said that the first stage was the loss of H.M.S. Hood and the climax was the sinking of the Bismarck. For a brief moment the Germans had achieved a great naval victory and it would be unwise to try and underestimate their success or to pretend that the loss of the Hood and the loss of her officers and men was not a calamity. The people should, however, remind themselves of the fact that Lord Chatfield had told them that the Hood was destroyed because she had to fight a ship which was 22 years more modern than herself.

The loss of the Bismarck, however, had weakened the German navy by a much greater proportion than the loss of the Hood to the British navy.

BATTLES COMPARED

Mr. Lakin compared naval battles in the last war to naval operations in the present hostilities. The sinking of the Bismarck had shown that a battleship of her type could be hunted down and destroyed in four days whereas in the last war such an action would have taken four weeks.

"What is it that makes this possible?" continued Mr. Lakin. "The answer is air power. In conditions of the previous war the Bismarck would have been able to slip away to safety. As it was, our aircraft had been the first to give warning of her leaving the harbour of Bergen."

"Then, again, the Bismarck would have escaped to the port of Brest if it had not been for our air-scouts. Even when badly crippled she still had a chance of escaping, although our ships were closing in on her from all sides."

"Once again, air-power gave the decisive stroke when torpedo-carrying planes from the Ark Royal so damaged the Bismarck's rudder that our ships were able to overtake her and deal her the final blow. That blow was given, not by a battleship, but by the cruiser Dorchester."

ANOTHER LESSON

Mr. Lakin next turned from the Battle of the Atlantic to the Battle of the Eastern Mediterranean where, he said, another lesson was being learned in the value of air-power and sea-power.

"As more details come through of the Battle of Crete we see more clearly that the German onslaught had only been made possible by her great strength in the air in that region. Germany has to thank her air superiority for the successes which she had gained. If not for this air superiority the Battle of Crete would have been over by now."

"But the issue still hangs in the balance. Thanks to our seapower we have been able to send supplies to our garrison in Crete. Mr. Churchill's pledge that Crete would be defended to the death is being fulfilled by General Freyberg's forces, and whatever the issue, the losses inflicted on Herr Hitler's highly-trained shock-troops will have a great effect on operations in the East. These Nazi losses are more vital to Germany than our losses of two cruisers and four destroyers."

"The point is that when we are as strong in the air as in the sea it will be a grim outlook, indeed, for the Axis," declared Mr. Lakin. "And this brings me back to President Roosevelt's declaration."

BUILT IN AMERICA

"It will be remembered that the Bismarck was found by a flying-boat—a Catalina aircraft—which was built for Britain in an American factory."

"What the President has to say now means the strengthening of war production in the United States."

"The President now has powers to take over industrial plants to suspend the laws governing working hours, to take over all forms of transport and to use all sources of power in the production of munitions and also to requisition any ship."

"These are only a few of the powers now vested in the President. Those affecting finance and every other aspect of defence are no less far-reaching. I stressed the industrial side of the proclamation because it is a crucial point in building up our air strength."

"We expected his broadcast to be strong and purposeful, but few could have anticipated the vigour of last night's declaration," continued Mr. Lakin. "Already the first comments by the American Press show that the lead he has given is not too bold for his countrymen to accept. The New York papers described his speech as a masterful policy and predict that action will follow."

In conclusion, Mr. Lakin said that there were other events which have taken place during the week, such as the progress of the war in Africa, which were no less important but which had to be passed over because of the greater importance of President Roosevelt's proclamation.

RE-EXPORT OF AMERICAN GOODS FROM PHILIPPINES

SHANGHAI, May 29 (Reuter)—Regulations against the re-export of American goods from the Philippines to foreign countries have been tightened up by a new ruling which requires applications for new export licences before such re-exports can legally be made, according to an American Consulate-General announcement.

The new applications must be presented to the United States Department of State and must name the proposed countries of ultimate destination. Unless such applications are granted re-export of American goods from the Philippines would constitute a violation of the Export Control Act and Regulations, the announcement adds.

The new ruling is believed to have been specially designed against the ruse whereby goods exported from the United States to the Philippines are re-shipped from the latter point to Russia and thence to Germany.

General Chan Cheng On Hupeh Administration

ENSHIH, Hupeh Province.—The primary duty of the provincial administration of Hupeh is the enforcement of the new district autonomy system in every HSIEN of the province, declared General Chen Cheng, governor and concurrently Commander-in-Chief of the central Hupeh and western Hunan war areas.

Despite the spread of the war to central Hupeh, it is possible to install the new administrative system in all counties of the province, except a few under complete enemy occupation, added the governor. Although half of the 81 hsien in Hupeh have become war or penetrated areas, most of their local governments continue to function, in the country or in neighbouring districts.

The period for the complete enforcement of the district autonomy system has been shortened to two years beginning 1941. The system is gaining headway in Enshih and Yunhsien. Efforts are being made to introduce it in every county so that by the end of 1942 Hupeh Province will have a brand new form of local government based on the Three People's Principles.

"EDUCATION YEAR"

Almost as important as the enforcement of the new administrative system is the educational reconstruction of Hupeh, continued Governor Chen. The year 1941 has been chosen as "Education Year." New Hupeh has started on a completely new form of education whereby students are trained only to the extent they are needed by society. Because some regions of the province are barren, an agricultural college has been set up whose graduates will help develop farming.

Because of an acute shortage of teachers in primary and middle schools, a teachers' college will emphasize social, rural, musical, and physical education. From college down to primary school, all students' expenses, including tuition, board and uniforms, are paid by the provincial government.

In economic reconstruction, the provincial government stresses hydraulic engineering, farm irrigation, reforestation, and, above all, intensive modern farming to increase food crops. Attention is given to the improvement of caravan routes between Hupeh and neighbouring province.

The new district autonomy system was introduced in Enshih in September, 1940.—(C.I.C.)

CASTLE PEAK ROAD MOTOR ACCIDENT

Attempting to avoid a head-on collision with another car, the driver of private car No. 4388 crashed onto the hillside and damaged the car.

According to a report made by the driver, Wong King-cheung, residing at No. 388, Leichikok Road, Wong stated that about 10.30 a.m. on Wednesday whilst he was driving along Castle Peak Road, near the 11-mile stone, another private car, No. 493, overtaking a bus from the opposite direction, forced him to swerve into the hillside.

The following telegrams are lying at the office of Messrs. Cable and Wireless, Ltd., awaiting claimants:—Kinloch, Arlington Hotel, from Rangoon; Kinloch, Arlington Hotel, from Rangoon.

$12 MILLION REVENUE ON RECONSTITUTED TAX

Allowances For Families Revised By Committee

REPEAL OF WAR REVENUE ORD.

Total revenue will be $12,200,000 a year instead of $11,000,000 at present estimated according to increased basic rates, and including revenue from Interest Tax (on loans and mortgages), a new imposition, as contained in the Report of the Reconstituted War Revenue Committee tabled in Legislative Council yesterday afternoon.

The Committee recommend an increase in the basic rates of Salaries, Business Profits, Property, Corporations Profits and Interest Taxes, from 5 per cent. and 10 per cent. to 6 per cent. and 12 per cent. respectively.

An important recommendation is that, because of the rise in the cost of living some relief should be afforded to those payers of Salaries Tax who have wives and children. There, it is proposed that the allowances for families be revised and that in future the allowance for a wife should be $3,000 instead of $2,000 as at present, $2,000 for the first child, $1,000 for the second and $500 each for the third and fourth children, as compared with a flat rate of $1,000 for each child up to and including the fourth as at the present time.

The essential parts of the Committee's report are in part:

Our examination of the existing measures of War Taxation, was governed by three main considerations:—

(a) We were informed by the Financial Secretary that owing to defence measures which had been taken since the Budget for 1941-42 was framed or which were likely to be taken in the near future, the Colony's war expenditure during the present financial year would amount to considerably more than the sum of $12,300,000 shown in the printed Estimates. This additional war expenditure was likely to be of the order of $5,500,000.

Allowing for an estimated yield in 1941-42 of $9,300,000 from War Taxation on its present basis and a net surplus of revenue over expenditure for the financial year 1940-41 amounting to $3,000,000 which could be carried forward into 1941-42, it was desirable to raise additional revenue to the extent of some five million dollars by modifying the existing War Taxes or by imposing new ones or by a combination of both methods.

(b) From the relatively small number of firms paying Business Profits Tax and the fact that up to March 31, 1941, the net amount charged in respect of Business Profits Tax was only $1,078,000 as compared with $4,531,000 in respect of Corporation Profits Tax it was evident that a large section of the business community was not bearing its fair share of the Colony's war-time burden.

(c) One year's experience of the working of the present Ordinance had disclosed inequities which it was desirable to smooth out and loopholes for evasion which it was desirable to close.

NO INCOME TAX

To reduce the possibilities of evasion and ensure equal incidence we first considered the advisability of recommending the complete repeal of the present War Revenue Ordinance and the substitution therefore of a full Income Tax enactment; we decided, however, by a majority that in view of the opposition which the suggestion to introduce Income Tax had called forth in 1939 we would re-affirm in this regard the recommendation of the original War Revenue Committee. We decided to appoint a Sub-Committee composed of Mr. A. G. Clarke (Chairman), Mr. H. M. Bryden, Mr. L. Kadoorie and Mr. C. van Langenberg to examine in detail the present War Revenue Ordinance with a view to smoothing out its inequities and increasing its yield from War Taxation. This Sub-Committee held twelve meetings and presented a most comprehensive report which was gratefully adopted by the full Committee and which formed the basis for our conclusions and recommendations. Our conclusions have been incorporated in a draft War Revenue Bill which is attached to this Report as an Appendix.

INTEREST TAX

We felt that the charge of inequitable incidence could not be avoided unless we devised some means of taxing the one broad source of unearned income at present untaxed—namely, interest on loans and mortgages. We have therefore devised a scheme for the taxation of certain classes of interest which we have included in the draft Bill under a new Chapter entitled "Interest Tax." This tax is practically limited to interest on mortgages, bills of sale, debentures and loans made to corporations or firms who are liable to Profits Tax; we found that the yield to be expected from taxing interest on bank fixed deposits, savings bank accounts, etc., would be too small in relation to the cost and trouble of administration to the banks concerned.

With a view to increasing the yield from Business Profits Tax we considered that the exemption limit should be reduced from $10,000 to $5,000 and that the limit for the lower rate of taxation should be reduced from $100,000 to $50,000. The reduction of the exemption limit would greatly increase the number of firms paying this tax and would minimise the incentive to the splitting of businesses.

We considered the question of whether a loss by a business or corporation in one year should be set off against profits in succeeding years but in view of the temporary nature of the Ordinance and the urgent need for revenue we have not recommended such a provision. For similar reasons, we consider any provision for depreciation in respect of the expiry of leases to be undesirable. We have not recommended that payments such as charitable contributions and donations to war funds or expenses incurred in connexion with Air Raid Precaution measures should be exempted from Profits Tax.

ALLOWANCES INCREASE

We came to the conclusion that in view of the rise in the cost of living some relief should be afforded to those payers of Salaries Tax who have wives and children. With this object we have recommended that the scale of allowances for a wife and children should be revised as follows:—

	Now	Recommended
Wife	$2,000	$3,000
1st child	$1,000	$2,000
2nd child	$1,000	$1,000
3rd child	$1,000	$500
4th child	$1,000	$500

We consider, however, that no allowance should be made for children in excess of four, or for dependent relatives. At the same time we have recommended that the lower rate of Salaries Tax be brought into line with the lower rates of the other War Taxes.

The above amendments, and many others on matters of detail which we have incorporated in the draft Bill but which we do not propose to attempt to explain in this Report since they are explained in the Table of Correspondence attached to the Bill, would in our opinion result in a more equitable distribution of the burden of war taxation. It is estimated that they would result in the following increases or decreases in revenue:—

	Increase	Decrease
Salaries Tax	.....	$30,000
Business Profits Tax	$850,000	—
Interest Tax	.....	$1,000,000
Net Increase	.....	$1,570,000

Taking the estimate of yield for 1941-42 at $9,300,000 if the present War Revenue Ordinance were to continue unchanged, the adoption of the amendments mentioned

BILLS PASSED BY COUNCIL

A Bill to provide for the issue by the Financial Secretary of one-cent legal tender currency notes was passed at the meeting at the Legislative Council yesterday afternoon as was a Bill to amend the Prevention of Eviction Consolidation and Amendment Ordinance, 1939.

A Bill to amend the Buildings Ordinance, 1935, was read a first time.

The reports of the Finance Committee (No. 13 of 1940-41) and (No. 1 of 1941-42), dated May 22, 1941, were adopted.

The Council was adjourned sine die.

THOSE PRESENT

Present at the meeting were His Excellency the Governor, Sir Geoffrey Northcote (President), H. E. Major-General A. E. Grasset, Colonial Secretary (Hon. Mr. N. L. Smith), Attorney General (Hon. Mr. C. G. Alabaster), Secretary for Chinese Affairs (Hon. Mr. R. A. C. North), Financial Secretary (Hon. Mr. R. R. Todd), Director of Medical Services (Hon. Dr. P. S. Selwyn-Clarke), Director of Public Works (Hon. Mr. A. B. Purves), Chairman of the Urban Council (Hon. Mr. W. J. Carie), Commissioner of Police (Hon. Mr. J. P. Pennefather-Evans), Hon. Mr. J. J. Paterson, Hon. Mr. S. H. Dodwell, Hon. Mr. M. K. Lo, Hon. Mr. Leo D'Almeida e Castro, jun., Hon. Mr. W. N. Thomas Tam, Hon. Mr. A. L. Shields, Hon. Mr. T. E. Pearce, Hon. Mr. Li Tse-fong and Mr. C. Bramah Burgess (Deputy Clerk of Councils).

above would bring in a further $1,570,000 raising the total to $10,870,000. Since data collected by the War Taxation Department indicate that profits generally have risen it is not unreasonable to put the total yield at the round figure of $11,000,000. This sum, however, falls considerably short of the amount which the Financial Secretary had advised us was necessary, and we had next to consider how additional revenue could best be found.

HIGHER BASIC RATES

We came to the conclusion that the extra amount required could best be obtained not by the imposition of new miscellaneous taxes, the yield from each of which would be comparatively small, but by raising the basic rates of all five war taxes. On basis of 5% and 10% the estimated yield was $11,000,000 so that raising the basic rates to 6% and 12% would produce an additional one-fifth or two-fifths of $4,400,000.

Rates	Estimated
5% and 10%	$11,000,000
6% and 12%	$13,200,000
7% and 14%	$15,400,000

The first alternative (6% and 12%) would produce rather less and the second alternative (7% and 14%) rather more than the additional sum which the Financial Secretary had advised it was necessary to find; taking into consideration the healthy state of the Colony's surplus balances and the estimated annual yield of at least half a million dollars from the recently imposed duty on Toilet Preparations we finally decided to recommend that the basic rates be raised to 6% and 12%. The estimated yield at the old and new basic rates can be set out in detail as follows:—

	At 5% and 10%	At 6% and 12%
Salaries Tax	1,300,000	1,440,000
Property Tax	2,300,000	2,760,000
Corporations Profits Tax	4,700,000	5,640,000
Business Profits Tax	1,800,000	2,160,000
Interest Tax	1,000,000	1,200,000
	11,000,000	13,200,000

CONCLUSION

We recommend that the War Revenue Ordinance, 1940, be repealed and replaced.

The draft Bill includes a provision that all matters pertaining to the year of assessment which ended on March 31, 1941, shall be dealt with under the present Ordinance.

In conclusion we should like to express our indebtedness to Mr. E. M. A. Barnett, the Secretary to the Committee, who has kept full minutes of our meetings and who prepared the first draft of our Report.

(Signed) C. G. Alabaster (Chairman), R. R. Todd, Stanley H. Dodwell, J. J. Paterson, M. K. Lo, Li Tse-fong, W. N. T. Tam, V. M. Grayburn, D. J. Goss, R. Robertson, L. Kadoorie, Ng Chak-wa, A. G. Clarke, Cyril van Langenberg and Leo d'Almeida e Castro, Jnr.

Meeting Of The Equitable Rice Sales Fund Committee

THE THIRD MEETING OF THE EQUITABLE RICE SALES FUND COMMITTEE was held at Medical Headquarters on May 26 and among those present were Rev. W. H. Alton, Mr. T. Y. Fung, Mr. Kwok Mok-hoi, Mr. C. N. Li, Mr. C. C. Liao, Mr. G. Lunging, Mr. Wong Quincey, Rev. H. A. Wittenbach, Mr. Young Tsun-dart and Hon. Dr. P. S. Selwyn-Clarke in the Chair.

The Minutes of the Second Meeting held on May 19, which had been circulated, were taken as read and were confirmed and signed.

REPORT OF DIRECTOR

At the invitation of the Chairman, the Director gave his report for the second week's operation. Sales of Grade A rice at $14.80 per picul had amounted to 289 bags (and 100 lbs.) and had realised $8,778.80, while some 160 bags (and 196 lbs.) of Grade B rice had resulted in $3,620.70 at $14 per picul, making a total of $10,863.50 cash received.

Expenses amounted to $10,399.50 in repayment to Government, for the rice purchased, $40 for transport and $114.74 for personnel and sundry expenses making a total of $10,554.24. The balance from the second week's working thus amounted to $309.38. In addition there were about 800 empty bags to dispose of.

FALL IN SALES

Although the sales had fallen off considerably, it was unanimously agreed that the operations should be continued as a hint to retailers. The Rice Controller (Mr. F. C. Barry) had advised this course.

The Chairman congratulated Mr. Fung for the successful efforts of the Tung Wah Committee at the Central Market Equitable Rice Sales Depot, Mr. Liang for similar efforts by the Hongkong Red Swastika Society at the Wanchai Market Depot and Mr. Li, Senior Camp Overseer, Medical Department, first at Jordan Road Depot, and since Monday morning, at the Tin Hau Temple, Yau-mat, by courtesy of the Tung Wah Committee.

RICE DEPOTS

The Chairman reported that as the result of a survey of retail shops in the Sai Ying Pun District which has shown that the dealers were selling rice at Government rates and of good quality, he had consulted the Director and they had arranged for the opening of a rice depot in the area to be postponed. Mr. Kwok undertook to keep a look-out on the local situation.

Discussion took place in regard to the opening of a depot in Hung Hom, Kowloon City and Kowloon Tong where Mgr. Bishop Valtorta had kindly offered premises.

In the absence of enough voluntary supervision in these areas, two of which were rather removed from centres of poorer inhabitants, it was decided not to take advantage of these offers yet.

Mr. Young Tsun Dart informed the meeting that Mr. Nuan Keng Ho of 103, Fuk Wah Street, had generously offered the use of the Fui Ho Theatre in Shamshuipo as a rice depot. It was decided to open a depot here if the need arose, possibly by closing that recently established in Yau-mat.

SALE OF COOKED RICE

The Chairman placed before the meeting a proposal for the sale of cooked rice on an experimental basis at Wanchai using oil burners. Mr. Murdoch had kindly investigated the question of oil fuel and the object of the project was to introduce communal cooking in "peace time" to effect a saving in wood fuel and the shipping needed to bring it to the Colony.

Dr. Selwyn-Clarke was authorised by the Committee to negotiate with the Food Controller with a view to ascertaining whether he would be prepared to finance the capital expenditure on such an experiment. The Committee meeting the cost of rice, etc., from any surplus balance remaining from sales of rice.

ADJOURNMENT

There being no other business, the Chairman adjourned the meeting until 4 p.m. on Monday, June 2.

U.S. People Getting Taller

NEW YORK.—If the American people, on the average, are getting taller, as some studies seem to indicate, there may be need for changes in design of things that are used by everyone.

The idea that there may be "giants ahead" in the American future—at least greater height with each succeeding generation—intrigues the statisticians and engineers connected with Arthur D. Little, Inc., whose business it is to help industry anticipate the future.

Need for adjustment in architecture and furnishings in fore-seeable future, especially in theatres, will be proportioned for longer legs. Automobiles are already making allowances for taller people. The standard bed will have to be lengthened. Clothing manufacturers may rearrange their size-distribution tables.

Evidence that the still unstable American population is getting taller with each succeeding generation comes largely from studies in universities.

A study of Harvard students whose ancestors have been in America for at least two generations indicates a gradual and regular increase of one inch per generation for four generations. Wellesley and other colleges furnish similar figures for girls.

The cause of the growth is somewhat puzzling, and in the opinion of those who have studied the problem, cannot be assigned to any one factor.

Salesman Fails In Appeal Against Death Sentence

Sentenced to death by the Chief Justice, Sir Athol MacGregor, at the February Criminal Sessions, HO SUNG-HEI, 23, salesman of the Chun Hwa Book Company, brought an application before the Full Court of Appeal, comprising of the Puisne judge (Mr. Justice P. F. Cressall) and Mr. Justice E. H. Williams, for leave to appeal against conviction.

He was found guilty of the murder of a fellow-employee, Wong Tong-chiu, at the company's godown, No. 3, Gilman's Bazaar, on Dec. 5 last year.

He was defended by Mr. Somers Fitzroy, instructed by Mr. J. Hall.

Appellant yesterday was represented by Mr. Lo Tung-fan, instructed by Mr. J. M. Hall, and Mr. J. Reynolds, Crown Counsel, appeared for the Crown.

ADJOURNMENT SOUGHT

Mr. Lo asked for the application be adjourned for four weeks on the ground that the appellant wished to call the evidence of his brother-in-law in whose company he was at all material times on the night of Dec. 5.

Mr. Lo added that several letters had been written to the sister in Shanghai in an effort to trace the whereabouts of the brother-in-law but no reply had been received.

Mr. Justice Cressall said the evidence Mr. Lo proposed to call was not new as it was in existence at the time of the trial. Refusing the adjournment Mr. Justice Cressall remarked that the present Court was of the decided opinion that the case was not a proper one in which an adjournment should be granted and allow new evidence to be put forward.

Regarding the appeal against conviction, Mr. Lo reviewed the evidence adduced by the Crown who based its case on circumstantial evidence. He submitted that there was insufficient evidence to convict and that the defence raised had not been properly put to the jury.

JUDGE'S RULING

Dismissing the application and, addressing the appellant, Mr. Justice Cressall said:—

"Your Counsel has based his arguments on the ground that there was not sufficient evidence to convict you of this crime. You have therefore, through him asked for leave to appeal against your conviction. Your Counsel has stressed the point that the evidence was purely circumstantial—that no one actually saw you commit the crime.

"May we remind you that, in many cases, circumstantial evidence is even better than direct evidence because circumstances cannot lie. We have read the record of the proceedings and the summing-up of the trial Judge.

"In the result we have no hesitation in saying that there was ample evidence before the jury, which they believed they were justified in accepting, and returning the verdict they did.

"As reference has also been made to the summing-up of the trial Judge, we desire to say that the summing-up was a perfect model of fairness to the accused. This Court says there is absolutely no merit in your application for leave to appeal, which is dismissed."

NAVY, R.A.F. TAKE HEAVY TOLL OF ENEMY SHIPPING

LONDON, May 29 (Reuter).—Five armed trawlers were escorting a German supply ship of approximately 5,000 tons which was struck twice by heavy bombs dropped by an R.A.F. Coastal Command aircraft off Brest yesterday.

East African Operations Awards

LONDON, May 29 (Reuter).—In recognition of the recent successful operations in East Africa, His Majesty the King has ordered the following promotions in and appointments of the Order of the Bath:

To Knights Commander—Lieut. General Alan Gordon Cunningham (brother of Admiral Sir Andrew Cunningham) and Major-General William Platt.

To Companions of the Order of the Bath—Major-General Alfred Reade Godwin-Austen, Colonel Harry Edward de Robiliard Wetherall and Brigadier-General George Edwin Brink, of the South African Staff Corps.

To Knight Commander of the British Empire—Major-General Lewis Maclesfield Heath of the Indian Army.

Hitler A Zoological Monstrosity

LONDON, May 29 (Reuter).—Hitler is a zoological monstrosity according to Professor Gerbrandt, Prime Minister of the Netherlands.

Speaking in London yesterday the Professor described Hitler as "this creature which combines the strength of the rhinoceros, the poison fangs of the snake and the stench of a polecat... inspires only loathing and disgust because it clutches with dishonest hands at the tree of life planted in our Christian civilisation."

China Campaign Committee Continues Work

Despite the terrific sufferings in England from Nazi blitz bombing, work of the China Campaign Committee, London, has never been interrupted, according to a letter received by the China Defence League from Miss Dorothy Woodman, National Secretary of the Committee.

After describing the conditions in London and elsewhere as a result of the ruthless German air attacks, the letter proceeds as follows:

"Yet we have never been interrupted in our work, or rather, we have never allowed these things to influence us. People have responded accordingly. Our bazaar, by the way, was the best we've held. £240 net profit—an excellent result for which our Socialist committee must have all the credit because they were not deterred by any pessimistic hints that people wouldn't buy. Our Burma Road campaign was quite a spectacular success."

"It showed that there is a real China-conscious public opinion in this country which can be trusted to respond at all times to our lead. The agitation on the matter surprised many members of Parlia-

The supply ship was left listing and settling down after the pilot of the British plane estimated that his second salvo "torpedoed" the ship below the water-line.

All the armed trawlers opened fire but the aircraft was hit only twice.

STEADY TOLL

The steady toll which the Royal Navy is taking of enemy troops and supplies bound for the Western Desert theatre of war is augmented by the sinking of an 18,000-ton liner and other vessels, announced yesterday's Admiralty communiqué.

In addition to the destroyer transferred to the communiqué of May 23, this communiqué also stated that a troopship of about 9,000 tons, a 7,000-ton tanker and a very large ammunition schooner had been sunk, while a smaller schooner had been shelled and hit several times.

SUPPORT NEW LIFE MOVEMENT

New Life associations have been formed by Chinese women in nine American cities, namely San Francisco, Seattle, Chicago, New York, Washington, Los Angeles, Baltimore, Portland and Sacramento, plus one chapter for New England under the sponsorship of the Women's Advisory Committee of the New Life Movement.

This information was brought back by Miss Ng Mun-chi, principal of the Mini Fong School for girls, who was commissioned by Madame Chiang Kai shek to the United States to organise the Chinese women in America.

After a two-year stay abroad, Miss Ng has returned to Chungking to report to Madame Chiang and to bring greetings to her fellow Chinese women in 15 states.—(Central News).

Anglo-Nord Agreement

LONDON, May 29 (Reuter).—Determination to prosecute the war to a successful conclusion was affirmed in the Anglo-Norwegian agreement concerning the organisation and employment of Norwegian armed forces in the United Kingdom which was signed yesterday by the British and Norwegian Foreign Ministers.

The two Governments agreed that one of the objects of the war is the re-establishment of the freedom and independence of Norway through its complete liberation from German domination.

They recognise the importance in their common interest of maintaining the armed forces of Norway and have agreed on the principles on which these armed forces will be organised for co-operation with the Allied armed forces.

CIGARETTE BUTTS CAUSE OF FIRE

LONDON, May 29 (Reuter).—A verdict of accidental death was returned at the inquest yesterday on the victims of a fire on the train in which boys from Ampleforth College Catholic School, including the two sons of the Belgian Prime Minister, M. Pierlot, lost their lives.

The Coroner said he came to the conclusion that the fire was started through lighted matches and cigarette ends being thrown about in fun and mischief by the boys, but he did not attach blame to any of them.

WAR-SURROUNDED SWITZERLAND SEEKS DURANCE UNTIL PEACE

BERNE, Switzerland.—This tiny democracy—virtually isolated by warring nations on all sides—is reshaping its entire economic structure in an attempt to "hold out" until peace once again opens up normal markets.

To make up for increasing shortages of food, a two-part plan has been evoked.

The first part calls for immediate cultivation of 50,000 hectares (about 123,500 acres) of land for grain and potatoes for the spring of 1941. The second part of the plan is to bring every possible square foot of land under cultivation until the war ends.

WORK BEGINS

Factory workers, school children and office workers are being harnessed to the task. Playgrounds, flower gardens, parks and mountain slopes are being brought under the plow.

All raw materials possible will be produced in Switzerland. Coal veins which have been idle since the last war and before are being worked again. All reserves of raw materials and all that are still obtainable from abroad will be set aside for the most vital industries.

CHILDREN HELP

Economy is being practiced as never before. School children save every scrap of silver paper and go from house to house collecting old newspapers. It is estimated that if one person saved 10 grams of foodstuff, each day it would mean a daily saving of four and a half freight cars full and a yearly saving of 1,640 freight cars full.

Old rusty nails, preserve cans and metal tubes and table scraps are carefully collected.

The expected decrease in industrial production due to raw material shortage will be balanced by the increased production in agriculture, so that the many workers who will lose their jobs in the factories can be employed in the fields. This will require a large measure of adaptation on the part of the individual.

MANY OBSTACLES

The obstacles which confront the drive for self-sufficiency are manifold. For Switzerland is poorly endowed by nature in food and raw materials.

A considerable part of the republic's foodstuffs for man and beast are in normal times imported. Industries are also to a large extent dependent on imports from abroad.

The few coal veins in the Alps are far from enough to fill home needs. Iron mines in Gonen and the Fricktal are inadequate, too.

Metals such as copper, nickel and tin are completely lacking. Mineral oils have to be imported from abroad, as do cotton and wool for textile industries.

BLOCKADES RESPONSIBLE

Many of these goods are completely cut off by the blockades or—as in the case of Rumanian oil—can only be bought in competition with more powerful nations.

Transportation difficulties make even the small quantities available for purchase hard to bring home.

River traffic on the upper Rhine, which in peace-time brought grain and coal to Switzerland, has for technical reasons not been continued despite the armistice with France. Switzerland, has for technical reasons not been continued despite the armistice with France. Switzerland has no freight ships on the Danube.

SHORTAGES IN EUROPE

All Europe is short of rolling stock, that few countries will transport goods bought by Switzerland, as is customary in normal times. Switzerland must go and get everything with its own rolling stock. Much rolling stock is required to transport goods that formerly went by the water route—such as coal from Germany.

Sometimes rail traffic is delayed because of sabotage or bombing of railway facilities. The bombing of Zurich and Basel held up railway traffic for several days. Destruction by saboteurs of the bridge between Geneva and Lyons held up traffic for weeks.

U.S. CONTROL OF THE DOLLAR

TOKYO, May 29 (Reuter).—Exchange bankers here anticipate greater control over the Dollar and Foreign Exchange by the United States under the proclamation of a national emergency made by President Roosevelt on Tuesday but minimise its probable effect on Japan's principal items of trade with the United States, says a Japanese report.

Japan's principal products of trade with the United States are raw silk exports and cotton imports.

Reclamation Centre For Panama-Returned Chinese

For the relief of Chinese forced to return here from Panama owing to the restrictive measures enforced in that country, the Kwangtung Provincial Government is planning to mark off Yanfa, near Kukong, as a reclamation centre for them, according to word received from Kwangtung.

As a preliminary step, the Panama-returned Chinese will be registered, after which representatives will be despatched by them to the designated area to make an investigation of the soil and climate.

So far more than 200 Chinese have returned here from Panama. Except a few who have some savings, the rest are in a pitiable plight. Another batch of 140 is expected to return here by the President Cleveland in the next few days.

A tea reception to a part of these overseas Chinese was given by Mr. Tseng Hsiao-feng, representative of General Li Hon-wan, Chairman of the Kwangtung Provincial Government, at the Kin Kwok Restaurant.—(Central News).

Gift Parcels To U.K.

NEW CONDITIONS ANNOUNCED

The following telegraphic instructions have just been received from the Secretary of State:

The procedure regarding gifts of food sent to the United Kingdom from abroad has been reviewed and in order to conserve shipping space for more urgent supplies such gifts will be allowed only subject to the following conditions.

(A)—Bona fide unsolicited gifts whether they include rationed food or not may be received from abroad by parcel post addressed to individuals. No parcel may exceed 5 lbs. gross weight or contain more than 2 lbs. of any one foodstuff. The maximum of 5 lbs. will also be applied by Board of Trade in the case of non-foodstuffs. No import permit or licence into the United Kingdom is required in such cases, but export permits will be required in Hongkong. All parcels must be clearly marked as GIFTS.

(B)—A gift cannot be regarded as "unsolicited" where it has been received as a result of some prior communication sent by recipient to donor. Moreover, the receipt of gifts at frequent intervals cannot be permitted.

INDIVIDUAL GIFTS

(C)—Licences which have been granted to importers to receive individual gifts in bulk for distribution through parcel post on arrival in the United Kingdom will not be renewed or any further licences of this type approved. Existing licences and those recently expired and under consideration for renewal will be held to cover consignments despatched from abroad by June 28.

(D)—Where it is desired to send larger quantities of foodstuffs (which must not include rationed food) arrangements must first be made for some responsible organization in the United Kingdom formed for charitable or similar purposes to be the recipient of such gifts. Application for a licence must then be made to Ministry of Food by organization which will be required to give an undertaking that goods will be consumed within that organization. For example, if recipient is a hospital the food would be supplied to patients or members of staff.

(E)—In the case of neither parcels nor larger consignments will it be permitted to send any money out of the United Kingdom in respect of gifts of food.

(F)—These regulations will apply in respect of all gifts despatched from abroad after June 28, 1941.

NO EVIDENCE AS TO DEFINITION OF GRADE 1 RICE

of their stock. The request was granted two days later on condition that the rice was for local consumption and its wholesale price to retailers, who in turn sold to the public, should be within the scope of the maximum price ordered.

Asked by Insp. Tuckett regarding the maximum price ordered, witness said that the wholesale price mentioned was $14.40 per picul for Grade 1 rice.

CROSS-EXAMINATION

Mr. Davidson: You are not, of course, a rice expert?

Witness: No.
I put it to you that there are over 30 varieties of rice in Hongkong (A list of the varieties was submitted).—Probably right.
Do you know how the defendant's firm conduct their sale of rice when rice is released to them?—I have no idea.

Is it a fact that when prices are restricted, it is not intended to apply to importers?—It did not apply.

Mr. Davidson went on to relate that defendant sold his rice in a sort of private auction, in which the rice went to the highest bidder.

The restrictions mentioned above have been abandoned except regarding Burma rice?—Yes.

What reasons can you give for this abandonment?—I can't tell you.

You can't tell me why prosecution is still going on while restrictions have been withdrawn on other rice except Burma rice?—I can't tell you.

THREE GRADES

Fung Dock third complainant, deposed that he bought 150 bags of rice from defendant's firm in April. Witness said that he was aware that Government classified rice into three grades.

Cross-examined by Mr. Davidson, witness said that the best "Siamese" rice was a special superior white rice. The next best was special white rice with five per cent. broken, then special white 15 per cent. broken, ordinary No. 1, 25 per cent. broken, white No. 2, 35 per cent. broken, white No. 3, 50 per cent. broken, and after that there were nine varieties of broken rice.

To a Chinese rice dealer, the term Grade 1 rice means nothing?—It all depends on how people call.

They may call any kind of rice Grade 1.
Insp. Tuckett: How many grades of rice are there?—Three—special, superior and special white.

"SIMU" RICE

Mr. Davidson: Have you ever heard of "Simu" rice?

Witness: Yes.
Very expensive?—Yes.
In Hongkong?—No, in Kowloon.

Insp. Tuckett submitted that the best kind of rice was classified as Grade 1.

Mr. Davidson submitted that the prosecution must prove that the rice which his client had sold was Grade 1.

ALL WITHDRAWN

Following this case, similar summonses against the managers of six other rice firms were withdrawn.

Defendants were: Wong Yuen-ming, of the Wah Wing rice shop, No. 10, Wing Fung Street; Wong Yuk-lam, of the Fook Sang Lung rice shop, No. 40, Shaokwan Road, both represented by Mr. F. G. Nigel; Wong Ching-nok, of the Kwun Hong Cheong rice shop, No. 51, Jardine's Street, represented by Mr. Alfred Y. Hon; Lau Yee, of the Kau Lung rice shop, No. 178, Lockhart Road; Chung Kam-wah, of the Shun Fat rice shop, No. 233, Hennessy Road; and Chan Mok-yim, of the Fuk Cheong Lung rice shop, No. 23, Lockhart Road.

ANOTHER CASE

Chan Ko, of the Man Cheong Loong rice and oil shop, No. 269, Des Voeux Road West, ground floor, was summoned for selling to Police Constable C198, Lui Sui, on May 29, six-and-a-half cattles of Grade 1 Burma rice for $1, which is in excess of the price fixed by Government on May 14.

Insp. P. D. B. Tuckett conducted the prosecution, while defendant was defended by Mr. F. G. Nigel, who pleaded not guilty.

Complainant, in evidence, said that the rice he bought was the best kind that the shop had to offer.

Mr. F. W. Shaftain, A.D.C.I.: Our witnesses have let us down. There is only one kind of rice with which Government is concerned and that is Burma rice. I ask for an adjournment of this case to call experts to prove that the rice concerned is Burma rice.

Hearing was adjourned to Tuesday at noon.

SHOOTING ON WHARF IN CANTON

INDIAN ACCUSED OF MURDER

An alleged murder that took place at the wharf of Messrs. Butterfield and Swire at Canton on May 12 last had a sequel before the Chief Justice, Sir Atholl MacGregor, at the Criminal Sessions yesterday when Dow Mohamed was charged with the murder of a man, Kwok Man.

Mr. E.H. Williams, Crown Counsel, appeared for the prosecution. Mr. H.W. Lee defended instructed by Mr. D. McCallum.

The following jury was empanelled:—Messrs. J. C. Fonseca (Foreman), Leung Hui-fung, Chan Woon-fun, Young Kee-hung, Tsui Shang-lun, M.A. Praia and Leung Kam-tong.

Mr. Williams said that the accused was a watchman employed by the China Navigation Company at their wharves at Kak Hin-hok in Honam, Canton.

Accused was a native of Punjab, India, and was registered as a British subject. Deceased was a hawker. At the time of the incident, accused was stationed on another guard, Sher Bahadur, on a wharf where the Fatshan was lying.

STOPPED BY ACCUSED

While accused and Sher Bahadur were searching people at the entrance about 5.20 p.m. a Chinese, carrying a basket, approached the wharf and was stopped by accused. There was some conversation and it was alleged, accused struck the Chinese and Sher Bahadur hit him with his stick. The Chinese ran and was chased by the two Indians. Later two shots, followed by three more, were heard.

Sher Bahadur's story was that a number of Chinese approached the wharf and resented being searched. One of them struck accused in the face and he saw accused chasing after a Chinese.

Chan Fung-po, continued Counsel, saw accused fire two shots and apparently missed.

Accused was taken to the office and the revolvers of the two Indians were examined.

Further hearing was adjourned to this morning.

PRINCE BERNHARD FUND

LONDON, May 29 (Reuter).—Prince Bernhard of the Netherlands recently won his wings and appeared at a meeting in the uniform of an Air Commodore.

He announced that the "Prince Bernhard Fund" has now reached $1,200,000 which had bought 32 bombers manned by Dutch crews and operating from England. Seventy-nine fighters had been presented to the British Government.

The Prince added, "Our army too, is getting ready. Extensive forces are now being trained in England and Canada."

SHAUKIWAN BOAT YARD TRAGEDY RECALLED

Committal proceedings on a charge of the murder of Kong Wong at the Tung Yee Hing boat building yard, Ah Kung Ngam, Shaukwan, on Apr. 25, against CHAN MUK, alias Tai Luk Muk, 44, wood sawer, was begun before Major A. N. Macdwyen at the Central Magistracy yesterday.

The prosecution was conducted by Mr. J. P. Murphy, Assistant Crown Solicitor, assisted by Det. Insp. L. R. Whant.

Mr. Murphy said that both accused and deceased were employees of the Tung Yee Hing boat building yard.

On the night of Apr. 24, deceased, after having his evening meal together with all the workmen, including accused, went to see a theatrical performance and did not return to his cubicle until 10 p.m.

At the time of deceased's return, accused was talking to his friends in the next cubicle. He left shortly after for a nearby opium diwan, where, being an addict, he usually frequented, but he did not touch any of the drug that night.

Accused left the diwan about 10.15 p.m. and was not seen again until 1 a.m. the next morning, when a woman neighbour, Chan Tai, who was attending to her chickens, saw him and spoke to him through a partition.

HEARD GROANING

A little later, the mistress of the yard heard someone groaning.

Replies To Questions On Incidence Of Evacuation On The Wives Of Senior Government Officers

Statistics of the incidence of evacuation on the wives of senior Government Officers were given by the Colonial Secretary (Hon. Mr. N.L. Smith) at the Legislative Council meeting yesterday afternoon when he replied to questions asked by the Hon. Mr. J.J. Paterson.

In no cases was the recommendation of the evacuation Advisory Committee over-ruled by higher authority, said Mr. Smith.

THE QUESTIONS

Mr. Paterson's questions were as follows:—

Will the Government give statistics of the incidence of evacuation on the wives of senior Government Officers, namely:

(a) wives not in the Colony when the evacuation was ordered;
(b) wives departed since that date;

(c) wives recommended for exemption by the Evacuation Advisory Committee;

(d) cases still pending when further evacuation was suspended?

In how many cases was the recommendation of the Evacuation Advisory Committee over-ruled by higher authority?

THE ANSWERS

The Colonial Secretary replied as follows:—

The replies to these questions are as follows, taking "senior officers" as including the following 22 officers, namely both Judges, all official members of both Councils, all First Class cadets and all other heads of the principal departments of Government, but exclusive of three unmarried officers in those categories:—

(a) 5; (b) 9; (c) 8; (d) 2.

Nil. No exemptions were granted except the six cases mentioned in (c) above.

CUP FINAL REPLAY

LONDON, May 29 (Reuter).—The demand for tickets indicates that a crowd limit of 45,000 will be allowed by the Police to watch the Cup Final replay between PRESTON and ARSENAL on Blackburn's ground on Saturday.

Preston, who are undoubtedly the best balanced team this season, are playing an unchanged side and are firm favourites.

Arsenal will have a reorganised forward line.

BAER'S CLAIM REJECTED

WASHINGTON, May 29 (Reuter).—The District of Columbia Boxing Commission has rejected Buddy Baer's claim to the world title.

Baer's claim was based on the allegation that Joe Louis hit him after the going. The Commission held up the decision of Donovan in disqualifying Baer.

The Chairman announced Promoter Jacobs agreed to match Baer and Louis again for a title fight in Washington in the first week of October.

DIFFICULTY IN PROVIDING CLERGY

Annual Meeting Of Peak Church

The annual meeting of worshippers of the PEAK CHURCH was held in St. John's Cathedral Hall yesterday when Mr. H. R. B. Hancock presided.

Before, the Hon. Secretary, Rev. A. F. Rose, read the annual report, the Chairman said that Bishop Hall was, unfortunately, unable to be present.

In his report, Mr. Rose stated that there were two weddings and one baptism at the Peak Church last year. Holy Communion was celebrated every Sunday. There was, said the speaker, an increasing difficulty in providing clergy for the Church.

The two half-yearly inspections of the Church were conducted by Messrs. Leigh and Orange, and repairs and minor redecoration recommended by them had been done.

VERY THANKFUL

Rev. K. L. Reichelt, of the Lutheran Church of Norway, said that the Scandinavians here like the Peak Church very much because it so closely resembled their own Scandinavian Church. They were, he said, very thankful for the co-operation received and hoped to stand together as never before.

Rev. K. Mackenzie Dow stated that there appeared to have been no regular services in the Church.

Mr. Rose said that the Bishop felt that a Church should either have a weekly service or none at all. He (the speaker) would suggest that the Church close down altogether during the height of the summer, for, say, a month or two.

After the adoption of the Accounts, the Chairman thanked the Scandinavian Church for a donation of $150, and to the clergy for looking after the services.

COMMITTEE ELECTED

The following were elected to the Committee for the ensuing year: Bishop Hall, Messrs. H. R. B. Hancock, G. Miskin, M. F. L. Haymes, S. V. Boxer, the Revs. A. F. Rose, K. Mackenzie Dow, D.M. Richards, and Mrs. H. R. B. Hancock.

The following grants were made from the Church funds at the 1940 meeting: St. John's Cathedral, $200; Christ Church, Kowloon Tong, $100; N. T. Evangelisation Soc., $100; S.P.C.K., $50; Association of Boys and Girls Clubs, $50; and Sec. Nat. Christian Council for supporting Scandinavian Missionaries in China, $100.

$309.53 For Poor Box

GAMBLING RAID SEQUEL

The funds of the Poor Box were swelled by $309.53 as a result of a gambling raid conducted by Mr. E. C. Luscombe, A.S.P., assisted by Det. Sgt. W. G. Morrison, at No. 14, Wing Shing Street, second floor, at 9.35 p.m. on Wednesday. Thirty-six persons were arrested.

Before Mr. Lowry at the Central Magistracy yesterday, Tong Hop, 28; Mok Yiu, 32, and Ng Yat, 52, were charged with keeping a common gaming house for the purpose of "pai kau," while the rest were accused of gambling.

All except third defendant were absent, and their bail, totalling $1,080, were estimated, first defendant being on $500 bail, second on $250 and the rest on $10 each.

BIG SCHOOL

After informing the Court that the $309.53 picked up included money seized from the persons of the first two defendants, Mr. Luscombe said: "I have been after this school for several months and I have good information that it was a big school."

Third defendant was fined $100, or two months' hard labour.
